My Babaji,
Om Namah Shivaya !

Yesterday, we were at the Ashram. Before leaving, I had sought your blessings, and I had the most wonderful puja and experience which I shall cherish all my life. At the ashram, I was involved in the puja ceremonies personally - I hope you were pleased with what was done. We seek your blessings all the time. Babaji, the things I experience cannot be passed off as coincidence or miracles - I am now sure that these are your ways of telling me that you are listening to me. I do wish and pray for direct conversation but you know what is best for me.

Babaji, (my husband) has been trying very hard to get onto this spiritual path by meditation, prayers, etc. but somehow doesn't feel the growth. What is lacking and what has to be done? Please bless him so that I have a home which is truly blissful otherwise I tend to get very upset and angry. Please answer my prayers. You have been doing so up until now and hope you will continue to do so. I have been trying to live on the path of truth, simplicity and love - any other advice for me, please let me know. I love receiving a letter from you but this time I request you to write some more lines, not just a short note. Please, this is a deep request.

My Pranam and Namaskar

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"I am always with you. Always listening. The body is imperfect. Some are quick. Some are slow. Your husband must focus on patience. He will feel growth with time. Time is the great Teacher. My advice to you is do the best that you can in all of your endeavors. This is what matters most. Did you not feel my presence during puja ceremonies? You are a beacon of Light on the most High path.

From R Regarding Life Difficulties

Babaji - Greetings, Shalom.

Once again I come to you with the same heavy heart, pain and suffering with questions/complaints as there is nowhere else for me to turn. I find myself in deeper and harsher misery from day to day and even my limited understanding can see possibilities for help that I am not able to get - I do not seek to blame but to understand WHY You have given me clear instruction on how to act, what to say, where to be on many occasions and do or act in a certain manner with people or in situations that I see as irrelevant to me - and I have done so as that is just the way it is.

You have written to me and in most of the responses to those who write you to [not a perfect quote] "invoke my name and chant the mahamantra and I will be with you" -- most recently my circumstances and my family's situation with regards to my son's high school education have dictated that I move to an area where he can go to a school of much better quality [we cannot afford a private school and the schools in our districts are academically bankrupt and socially horrendous and dangerous]. When last I wrote about this you pointed out that I should live within my means - this is correct, wise and even logical. I now know that the possibilities for finding an apartment in this area that is within my means are almost non-existent; but, the very first place I looked at WAS within my current budget [this is already bad enough and causes great stress and difficulty on a daily basis for years now] and I could have continued living at this level of difficulty - but when looking at the place, invoking your name and remembering the mahamantra I didn't get any of the guidance or urges that you have given me in the past with irrelevant situations so I waited for some guidance; not getting any after a couple of days I went to get the place as it would not only serve the ultimate purpose of my son's acceptance to school, but was within the means at hand, more or less; by this time the place was gone - I have spent the past couple of months looking for room to rent, a guesthouse, sharing a place, all I could think of and the ONLY solution is a place that is more than my means and this is what I must take to provide my family with the solution to this problem and my son with a decent education.

Sorry to be so long winded here, but I must ask, as this is eating me up alive - WHY did you not provide me with the guidance to take this place when it was available? My miserable existence in this ugly and corrupt world has now been magnified hundreds of times - why, why, why? I do not seek comfort, luxury, fortune, fame - just a simple existence and a small amount of inner peace; maybe a little time to grow and become somewhat of a human being - why could I not have been given a sign to avoid this deep plunge? Why have I received these signs to act in situations or with people that are inconsequential and insignificant and not when a condition of adding misery and danger to my own life is at hand?

I must write this as I am sick and tired of being stripped of hope and trust time after time - every endeavor I take upon myself is successful in the beginning and then falls apart within a couple of months, leaving me to continue and try again - and again and again and again - all for not, always alone and sinking further and further into this pit of darkness without hope. Now this situation - I am without the strength to fight constantly after the many battles of years - what can I do? Where can I go? Who can I go to? I have read your messages and don't feel that I am seeking to serve the lower self - is it too much to attempt to live a simple, quiet life? Is constant struggle, misery and suffering the way of this miserable life in this ugly world? Is there nothing else?

How can I even seek the Higher when a constant struggle to meet basic needs for myself, my son and family are not attainable? But most of all I cannot understand why such a simple thing as a thought to help avoid a situation that will cause such a huge burden and much misery for years to come is absent.

R

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"The body is imperfect. Sometimes guidance does not come through. You have the strength to get through this difficult period. Think of all the difficult periods you have come through. You had the strength then and you have that strength now.

From J

Dear Babaji,

I am happy we can meet this way. I have been praying to you for last 30 years. You are my constant guard and advisor. But sometimes answers are not too clear, being blurred by my own ego. If you could answer me thru this medium it would be a boon indeed. What do you see happening on the world scene for the rest of this year? And what do you think about the excavation of J.J. Hurtak under Giza in Egypt? Is he finding ancient artifacts which will change the earth? And when will ETS reveal themselves to the people on earth?

Thank you,
J

PS The answers can be shared with the entire list

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings,

"You will always be disappointed trying to predict the future. Those who live by the crystal ball will eat glass. Why not focus on the now. Live as fully as you can in the present and you will not be disappointed. I am always with you.

From N - Have I Missed Something Here?

Dearest Babaji.

You say thoughts are from the ego and so are judgements. I do think I understand the unconditional observer and how thoughts and judgements are from the ego but surely we couldn't operate in this world if we didn't think. I need to think to brush my teeth to assess whether a situation is dangerous or not. Have I missed something here?

Bhole Baba Ki Jai ONS
N

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings

"Are you attached to thoughts of the dead past or the non existent future. Do you look at something through the filter of past thoughts or do you look at something as fresh and new without judgement as if the observer and the observed are one. The Observer, the real you, exists in that space between thoughts where there is pure unconditional observation. Now you may go and brush your teeth.

From R - Where Should I Focus My Efforts

Greetings Salutations and Blessings to Shri Mahaprabhuji

Once again thanks and appreciation for the kindness afforded me and those close to me. I seek guidance and thought to write as well as ask within since a recent correspondence taught me that "the body is imperfect - sometimes guidance does not get through" [not quoted exactly]. I am working on many things at once and find that I am doing many things mediocre and nothing excellent; would like guidance as to what should be focused upon. The goal is to do a good job and generate enough material income for the needs of myself and my family while leaving enough time to develop and enhance my relationship with spirit and devotion. Example, I am moving to a new apartment and will not connect the television there - that should give me some time alone :>) These are the things that I am doing in order of time consumption:

Office [begin by travelling at approx. 8am return to my area approx 7pm] could be likeable work but don't like the many hours of travelling everyday (about 3 - 3.5 hours daily)

Auctions - work at this some during the day mixed in with office time and after coming home, weekends, etc. - like this stuff, can be done only from home

Creating websites, editing websites, online store, HTML for customers, internet promotion for pay - haven't been doing this as much lately as there hasn't been time; pay is very good and this is done at home so there is no travelling and no expenses involved - could get more of this if I try [think so anyway] - enjoy this work

Word processing for attorneys - don't like this but do it very seldom for a few more bucks

Working on an e-book.

May I benefit from your guidance as to where I should focus my efforts in order to have a shorter work day and more time to enjoy my son, family, spiritual and devotional time?

Thank you again for your patience and kindness
Love, R

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"If you focus on doing what you Love, the rest will follow.

From J

Beloved Babaji,

When I am surrounded by slandering, abusive, negative people, what can I do? I try to keep the MahaMantra going, I call on your name, and I try to remind myself that this is only a temporary situation - that as soon as I can manage it I will be relocating to another place where hopefully I will be able to manifest a more supportive environment to work in. Yet, I am unable to sustain it and get dragged down in the mud with them, cursing and angry. I am not very proud of my behaviour in the last 10 or so months, I have not been the person I know myself to be. And the problem is, I am , in some small way, the "beacon of light" for my family and a few friends, so when I get dragged down to the low path, it seems to effect them as well. Not good. The darkness has definitely descended upon (my town) and j'sworld. Any suggestions?

Much gratitude and appreciation,
J

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings,

"I forgive you. Now you do the same. Focus on elocation. In the meantime when you chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name imagine in your minds eye that you are a mirror reflecting back negativity. This will slow them down until you can find a place conducive to your growth.

"Babaji"

Afterthoughts by J:

Just wanted to share a result since using this technique of the mirror. The manager of the place where I work is being revealed as the instigator of much of the turmoil at work. She is so subtle, none of us had any idea, yet, somehow the veil dropped and we see how she says stuff, trying to turn one employee against another, and then sits back and looks sweet and innocent while enjoying the show. The other thing that is noticeable is that since I have just had the mirror up the whole time I am at work, this same manager has been having a series of small misfortunes ... really makes me think back through my time at this job, how much might have been caused by unconscious or conscious psychic attack by this person.

From Babaji - The Body

"Blessings,

"The body is no-thing. It is made out of food. Understand? The body is just food for another body. Sustenance. What is real is the real you. The higher Self. That which exists without a body, without food. Do not be concerned about the body. Do not worship the body. It is temporary. Fragile. Vulnerable to disease, old age, and death. Even Babaji must abandon the body. Understand? This is my message. Do not be attached to the body. It will bring much grief. Be aware of the higher self. Be alert to the higher self. Take care of the body. Feed it properly. Exercise it properly. But do not be unduly worried or enamored of it.

Question: I love doing the Aarti. Should I continue to do this practice daily? And if so, how many times a day. I know that I am your disciple. Should I be Christian also? Should I seek to marry CS? A holy man stated that "she would love me much." Can I trust the pendulum?

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"You must do what is in your Heart. You can follow your religion and still live in Truth, Simplicity, Love, and Service. Seek to marry who you Love. You can trust the pendulum if it reflects what is in your Heart, but if it reflects what is in your ego, then BE AWARE, BE ALERT.

From B - Seek To Marry

BLESSINGS:

"Seek to marry who you love." Babaji, it is my desire to marry the one that you could bless me with. Would you be kind enough to reveal who she is? When will I meet her? Is she your devotee?

From J - How To Overcome

Dear Baba,

How can I overcome the negative projections of others? How can I overcome jealousy, from others and in myself? What is the root cause of jealousy? What way are we to pray for those suffering in the fire purifications, when those around us are ready just to die, like my father? How can I overcome the vibrations of futility? I'm working every second to achieve the goals you set for me. Will hear from the job I'm hoping for today.

J

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"You ask many questions. I have answered all of them. Truth, Simplicity, Love. Focus on my message. Chant the Mahamantra. All of these questions can only lead to more questions. The mind and the body will get very worn out from this. Try to live, to observe, unconditionally, without judgment, without question, for a few moments. See how this feels.

Dear Babaji,

Babaji Responds:

"Babaji's BIG plan is this: Be a simple person. Live in Truth, Simplicity, and Love. Be an original human being. Be an independent unconditional thinker. Seek your Higher Self within. Quality of Life, not quantity will accomplish great things.

From J - Charitable Fund?

Dear Beloved Guru,

Your answers and teachings touch my heart so much, I am left speechless to express my Love and gratitude. May God Bless You and Bless You always. It comes now very strongly into my heart to develop a charitable trust, with the initial purpose of assisting Babaji devotees in crisis, like those who are in danger of losing their homes, health assistance for those who cannot afford it and so forth. This could eventually extend to other charitable projects, or to the development of Your website, as the Heart guides.

If You approve of such a plan, I will submit a simple proposal based on what I have learned so far. Also if You approve, I would ask Your Blessing and protection that the fund and I would not fall into low path, and would stay on the High built on Your Principles and Teachings of Love, Truth, Simplicity, Service and living on the High Path. I await Your Will. I pray that all I do or Am or ever will be, will be always in Union with Thee. I offer, Shri Guru, in humble gratitude.

From L - Buzzing With Questions

Dear Babaji,
Om Namah Shivay

My mind is buzzing with questions. I have been thinking about Your teachings a lot during the past month. Thinking of new ways to bring Truth Simplicity & Love into my life to be able to 'LIVE' what You say. As yet I have not mastered these seemingly easy instructions, but they have me wondering if they are enough!

As You know there is much going on in the world right now, violences against humanity and much pain etc. Are these instructions enough to heal all of this. Or is this not part of the plan? I'm trying hard to embrace what You are teaching everyone. Is Your message the magic formula that will help heal the world and small-fry like me? If I follow TSL etc is it possible to heal all karmas in this lifetime, in this body?

I have also been thinking about the 'REAL' thing. You have said in the past that You have come to give, but few ask for what You have come to give. Or recently You wrote.' I am only here to give. You need only ask. But ask for the Real. Are you ready to do that? Open your Heart, now, and receive the Real.' What is the 'REAL', and can I have some please!! (hee hee, if only it were that easy!) I used to think I knew what You were trying to give, I thought it was God & enlightenment and spiritual advancement and the like, but now I not so sure. Is that what it's all about, spiritual advancement. I don't know anymore where to aim my arrow: being human? Not being attached? Go for spiritual goals? I know too many questions. However a bit of light shed on any or all of these questions, I hope will help me map out a direction to proceed with living inner goals.

Lots of Love and Thanks.

L

P.S If all you have to do is ask, then go for it, open my heart and help me receive what is Real.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings,

"You have not mastered Truth, Simplicity, Love, and you ask, is there more, is this enough? Who is asking is there more? All human problems, all scientific problems, are ultimately answered in simplicity. The scientists study long and hard, develop complex equipment, only to realize that the whole Universe can be explained in one simple mathematical equation. But I have given you the translation of this equation. Truth, Simplicity, Love. Study it. Live it. Apply it to the problems of humanity.

From S - I Do See That Your Teachings Are So Similar

Dear Babaji,

This letter will be different than the others you receive in that I'm not a follower. However, I do see that your teachings are so similar, if not the same as Jesus. Two years ago my life changed. I began to seek God in a big way. A door opened and I walked through. I would like to say I never looked back, but I did.

This is why I write you now. I was brought up in Christianity. The teachings were very fear based and my relationship with God was based on fear. There were several times throughout my life that I would question this belief, but since the teachings also included such things as Satan trying to lead us astray and using the Word of God to deceive us, I was afraid that these new thoughts were from Satan.

It has been a difficult struggle out of my old way of thinking. I have gone through a 'fire' so to speak to bring me to the place I am today. My confusion lies in the figure of Jesus Christ. Why did he die? What was the purpose behind it? Did he choose this or was it the choice of the people? Who is Jesus? Is he any different than you? Is he any different than I? Who are you? Are you another Master at the level of Jesus? Are you Jesus reincarnated? Do you speak with Jesus? Oh Babaji, I am so confused. I pray you have some answers to light my way.

I also feel compelled to ask you this. I woke to these words, "Papa wants you to speak to his ambassador." and then the word "emissary". I feel there is a path before me that is blocked. I pray this block will be shown to me and dissolved. Thank you for your help. I respect the wisdom in the answers you have given others. I believe I have felt your spirit in the wee hours of the night. I feel you know I am writing you now.

Blessing to you.

S

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings,

"I am no one. I am no thing. You need not leave your religion to live in Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service. You may chant the Mahamantra and call on me at any time for any need. I am always with you.

From T - Are We In The Right Place?

Dear Babaji,

Your presence in my life is my most valued and precious relationship. Thank you for your willingness, patience, firmness and love.

I have not felt very close to your energy through this medium of communication. I do hear you within me and I love your gifts to me. Right now I feeling so in a quandry over my process that I'd appreciate support from as much of You as is available to me.

Thank you for the recent gift of the Light breath meditation. It has been a real boon and I wish more people were willing to be the light they were created to be. How do I get this to more people willing to do it?

K and I feel like we're in the wrong place. Since I went into this healing crisis we have virtually not worked- been able to support ourselves. There appears little support-interest in our work here. We have never been in the financial distress we're in now - despite tons of Sadhana, Japa, Process, Agnihotra and Surrendering.

Please help us out of this Baba. I feel the energy needed for healing my body gets greatly diminished by worry over unpaid bills and whether or not we have enough money for food, water and gas.

Another pressure is my sentiency I often get visited by folks without their bodies. I go into fairly severe reaction response. I get so defended that the pain and shut down renders me unable to move. This is not good. How can I heal and be of service when I am this sensitive and debilitated?? Please BABA support me out of this.

I deeply honor you for making your energy available to all of us. I have an idea of what a challenge this is. May You be blessed and supported in the high way that you are supporting us and blessing us now.

In the last minute of the healing meditation this book came to my mind, I had the thought to purchase the book & if it was not presently being translated, I thought I would give it a go!! "Focus on the SIMPLE. Be a simple person. Live SIMPLY. Your path is simple. To be a beacon of LIGHT so that others living in darkness can see your compassion and unconditional LOVE and use you as an example to put an end to their hate and anger. This is your gift. Do not be confused. I am always with you.

From M On Father's Day

Beloved Father,

It is my great joy to be able to tell you on this Father's day in this way, "HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!" I am not asking for a response to this message. I only pray that you receive it in the spirit that it is meant. I am unable to type out what is in my heart for you but I know that you are always with me and that you know what is written there. I know that you are my Father in the truest sense. That is a Truth. I Love you so much! I pray that someday that I will be able to declare like my Brother Jesus before me, "I and my Father are One!" That is Simplicity. And our bond, our Togetherness, that we 'Grok' each other and together we serve - that is Love.

Father, thy will be done. *Pinda kacha, sabda sach*a. I am Yours and You are My Very Own. I pray that the day will come soon that you will be able to dance with your Children on the other side of the Revolution in the New World that shall be created in the name of Truth, Simplicity and Love through Service and living on the Higher Path. I know you hunger and thirst for that day. I pray that your Joy upon that day will last FOREVER! Your vision of the New World lights the way! Thank you for letting all my Brothers and Sisters glimpse it through your eyes!

Father, I am only one of your many multitudes of Children. I do not claim to be the oldest, the youngest, the most or the least. I only know that I am one. I am satisfied that today I can wish you Happiness and that You hear me. That is enough. My cup is full.

Thank you, Father. Thank you!
Love,
M

Dear Babaji,

The Aarti says "The form of the Guru is the base of meditation." How many bodies do you have on the Planet now?

From S Or I - Feeling Left Out And Sceptical

Dear Dear babaji,

How are you today? Hope you won't be so tired especially after the healing meditation which you had to take care of so many, many of your devotees.

My name is S or you can call me I (my religious name) ha! Well, since i have been repeating Om Namah Shivaya for a long time and always praying to you.

Also, i have attended both of the meditations. But how come everybody got at least some obvious responses from you, except me! I am so sad and devastated right now, don't you think so??? (so, if you are the real Babaji, you must know what did I pray to you during the healing sessions, and can you answer me? if your answers are correct, then you are the real Babaji, then i will bless you from my heart, ok? if not, i will still bless you, but please don't kid around with people anymore, ok? Since I have millions of questions, right now i am starting with this small letter and hope you can answer it.

After all, are you willing to help me out if your answer is correct and then how? Hope to hear from you soon, ok?

Yours, Faithfully
Om Namah Shivaya
I

From JB - I Need Relief

Dearest Babaji,

Well I know that the lotto numbers were an easy way out.

Babaji I feel that I'm in a little trouble. The back is still sore. I need relief, I've just finished my marriage to Louise because I was unhappy & to top it all off I want to get back to Vietnam and I've got not money to do this. So things don't feel so o.k. for me. I'm troubling you with my troubles & I know my troubles are small. So can you tell me how I can get out of this mess?

p.s. Is the mantra Om Namah Shivaya the mantra for healing?

Thanks Babaji
Love JB

From KD - Feeling Chaotic And Stressed

Dearest Babaji,

I have to move out of town because of my husband's job relocating. Everything seems to be chaotic in the process and I feel totally stressed because I have to leave my job of 29 years and find another at my age (50).

I am asking for your blessings that I find a job easily and to give me the emotional strength I need now to get through this situation. Will this move be good for all concerned?

I am not unfamiliar nor unwelcome to change, but I feel like I'm in a "bardo of life" where the winds of karma are buffeting me around and where everything is intensified 7 times. I'm just hoping for a good "re-birth". Thank you so much for being there.

In deepest love and devotion
KD

Babaji Responds:

"You will get through this period and find that it will be beneficial.

From KE - How To Totally Surrender

Dear BABAJI
Shri Shri 1008 Shir Haidakhandi Wale Baba!

Babaji you are all I truly desire. You are the motivation to get up and gather a flower, praise Om Shri Ganapati Namah, Om Shri Kirtimuka Namah, present to you the flower, Om Namah Shivaya, , put sandlewood oil on you through the lingum, Bhasma from Haidakhand on the lingum and tripundra on my humble forehead, incense and read to you the 12 Jyotirlingas, the Abhilasastaka and the Haidiyakhandi Sapta Sati, then 108 Om Namah Shivayas. Then I dedicate light Breath to you.

Again you motivate me in the afternoon to repeat this all again (except reading 12 jyotirlingas) and then I do Agnihotra, dedicating the Light Bridge Attunement to you as well as the Bursting the Body light breath. I meditate listening for anything Om Namah Shivaya I desire to truly be devoted to you. I have done 1250 Mahamrtyanjaya's and 1,000,000 of the Mahamantra. Would it support us to do these again?

It is in my mind constantly (almost) to be here now and not be worrying about no clients, no cash flow, etc. Om Namah Shivaya. Show how to totally surrender to allow you to flow through me 24+ hours a day. It is my desire to be only devoted to you. What else is there?

I read so many ways to get off the wheel through the Puranas (Shiva, Linga and Bagavata) I chose to read them all. What is my next step of highest opportunity?

Your humble devotee
In Truth, Simplicity and Love,
KE

PS: May I continue to send praises through this avenue? May I praise you by sending the Exalted magnificence of Gauri and Shiva? Etc?

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"There must be balance in all things. You are a spiritual being having a human experience. Therefore there must be balance in things spiritual and things of the world such as family, career, and service. I want you to focus on this balance. This is your next step.

"I am always with you whether you are doing ritual or working.

From P - Physical Immortality?

Dear Babaji ,

I always thought that one of the things you taught us, was that we would be able to achieve physical immortality in this life, through purification and working with the elements - examples such as the Indian Yogi, Bhartriji, who is over 2000 years old in the same body.

I know our cells have the immortal cellular memory - but can our cells become immortal?

I understand also, that it is the telomerase content of the chromosome that determines the aging of the body, and when these do not divide or multiply, your body ages - scientists are working right now on developing the human telomerase to stop the aging process, do you think this will be successful?

Love and blessings

P

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"No. What I said was that there are a few masters that can keep a body for a long time but I also said this. Pinda Kacha, Sabda Sacha ... What is immortal, what can NEVER wear down, NEVER perish, is the real YOU, that which came before the body and that which is after the body.
