Emails With Babaji

Most of Babaji's correspondence was through email passed to and from Babaji by Marge Meduna-DeVivo during the period from December 9, 1998 through August 4, 2000. These emails number in the hundreds. Enjoy the precious, enlightening correspondence between Babaji and His devotees.

Babaji On The Domain Name For Website

Upon receiving the news that the domain name babaji.net had been secured, on December 17, 1998, this message came from Babaji:

"Babaji is very pleased with the creation of this project. You have taken my message into your heart and you have acted upon it. You have set into motion a great seed which will become a beacon for the transmission of the teachings ..."

From K - Babaji, Am I Hearing You Right?

My Beloved Babaji,

I want to see if I am hearing your voice correctly.

I heard you tell me that one of the purposes of calling all your devotees together (in the Healing Meditations) is for the purpose of heightening and tuning their inner (audio) frequencies so that they may be able to hear you more clearly inside. That way they will be able to distinguish the voice that is clearly Yours and the conflicting one that goes on in our heads everyday.

Am I correct in that?

Do you feel all the love that I have in my heart for you? What does the great love mean?

In deepest love and devotion,
K.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Yes that is correct. I feel your heart and your compassion. I am only here to SERVE, unconditionally. I require nothing in return.

"Babaji"

From Babaji - December 10, 1998

"I am timeless. I never sleep. I am here and I was there and I will be. This is but one planet among billions and billions. Sentient beings abound throughout the universe throughout many dimensions of time and space. I am everywhere helping and serving. This is my purpose. My message is Truth, Simplicity and Love. This is how you are to live in the body. This is how you are to have equanimity of the mind. And you must serve by working. Idleness is laziness and laziness is death. Do not be misled. Preparing for the Great Revolution is not in the store of food or money or water or wood. It is in the store of Truth, Simplicity and Love. Attach yourself to God. Unconditionally. Chant. Call to me in your need. And thus you will survive the Great Change.

"This is my message to all here. This is my message to all sentient beings throughout all dimensions. All must face the Great Revolution. Change is force of creation. We must all face it. Even Babaji. I am Bhole Baba. I am here."

Baba,

I've left the book I'm writing in the background and have been focusing on prosperity NOW. This focus has created more debt so far and I'd rather create abundance. Which way will lead me to receiving prosperity now?

Thank You.

I love you

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Concentrate on Truth, Simplicity and Love, and Abundance will come your way.

"Focus on prosperity and debt and despair will ensue.

"Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

I've been meditating on Truth, Simplicity, Love, and amazing things are happening ... it all started like this:

Did I share with you why I went into a meditation using the mantra "Truth, Simplicity and Love" after receiving Babaji's answer to me? Oh wow - I sat at the computer reading and re-reading the message and went into a peaceful and deeper state of awareness, then decided to get up and "do" something.

Well, I have a drum I made hanging on the wall above my computer and as soon as I moved my thoughts from Baba's message to "something else", the drum fell off the wall! It's never fallen before! "OK, what was that all about?" I said aloud? No response, so I re-hung the drum, then got up to go to the bathroom and just as I got up two bottles of shampoo and conditioner fell off the wall where they were sitting upon a ledge in my shower!

This time, I got it very clearly, that Babaji wanted my attention and I sat down, went into a space of relaxation and deep breathing and repeated "Truth Simplicity & Love" over and over and over for I think about 30-45 minutes. This continued for several days except for the sitting down. I remained very alert, very aware, very relaxed and the mantra, TSL, continued penetrating my beautiful mind!

Everything in my world has been changing since that day in a way that serves me better, which serves everyONE! I am now receiving abundance at every turn and I have not focused on "prosperity" - rather on TRUTH, SIMPLICITY & LOVE! My prayer is that I have the strength and courage to walk with Truth, Simplicity and Love and become Babaji's message!

I am happy to share this experience with others, and I wish to remain anonymous.

Hi Marge.

It's hard to put into words my experiences since receiving Babaji's reply but I would like to try and share this with you. As I wrote my e-mail to Babaji, I felt that he was with me while I was writing it. This is what I wrote:

Babaji hi,

I know you have come to me in the past on various occasions and I thank you so greatly for that - beyond tears, beyond words - and in the same breath I selfishly tell you that I want more connection with you. I know you are always there, but I don't always know how to reach you thru meditation. I'm not very good at it. The truth is I don't know how to put into words what my heart wants to know. I don't have many words to use. I don't know any Indian phrases, but I love you with all my being and with everything that I am and could ever be. I have always loved you, and I know, I forget you from time to time. Long periods of time... and I know you will feel the depths of my aching heart regardless of this e-mail.

Babaji, help me to live simply and on the higher path. I want to know G-d. THIS IS ALL I WANT. This is the only thing there is for me. I want to be good, and I know I have done bad things in my life. You know what they are. I am looking for a teacher, yes I know they are all around me in the daily life, but I can't understand what they are telling me.

I have always known that Kriya Yoga is the way. I can't find someone here who will show me. Could you initiate me? I know you could, I guess my question is would you?

Love to you,
Dinah

And this is what he wrote back (so very quickly!):

"Blessings:

"I have forgiven you of past transgressions. Now you must forgive yourself. You need only chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name to reach me.

"The teacher is here in the teachings. You have been initiated many lifetimes ago. Understand? Walk on the High Path and be a Beacon of Light for all sentient beings.

Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

When I opened this e-mail I was jolted by the energy. Hard to describe. For the next 24 hours during hectic days I chanted in my mind OM NAMAHA SHIVAI and talked with Babaji and things became clearer and clearer in my life. I felt this overpowering urge to succeed this time. I found an urgent need not to waste this lifetime.

That night I had a dream about Babaji and other holy beings. I was learning and serving them. All I really remember is Babaji saying to somebody not to let me fall asleep during something or other and that that was what God wanted.

Anyway, last night after a very long day I had a bath and during that time chanted OM NAMAHA SHIVAI and I felt in my being something was going to happen. I decided to rebirth (I have been blocked during rebirths for the past 5 years (+/-). I got into bed and continued breathing and chanting and talking to Babaji. I prayed for him to guide me through this rebirth (kriya yoga) and not let me fall asleep. Almost instantaneously I began the most intense rebirth I have ever had. I smelt this incredible odour of heavenly flowers and I knew Babaji was with me.

To describe the event (which lasted about 2 1/2 hrs - while my husband was sound asleep beside me!) is difficult, (as you no doubt know yourself) but I will suffice in saying that if I had any doubts about the connection between rebirthing and kriya yoga or Babaji and myself they have gone completely. I understand a lot more now. Actually even now, as I write this I still feel intense energy in particular points in my body.

Marge, I want to volunteer my time to your anything. Tell me how I can be of assistance and I will be.

Much love to you for helping to open up what has been dormant in me for "many lifetimes."

Hello Dear Babaji,

I am so glad that I can email you. I love you so much and live for you...to be with you. I tried not to email you so as not to burden you, only ask you as a last resort; but, I think I should ask you the foremost. I love you very much.

I have had a pain in my heart for the longest time. This pain kills me every time I think about it. It is my sister. My sister is really sick. She is very sick emotionally, physically, and psychologically. I am worried for her and have always been worried for her. Please cure her of her pains, her karmas, and help her in a path where she will be satisfied and happy. I am really worried about her. Babaji please help me meditate for her or anything that I am capable of doing successfully. Please help my sister.

With lots of love,
Om Namah Shivaya.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"I understand and feel your pain. Even my heart aches. But your worry and pain will only lead to your own misery. Nor will it help your loved one.

"Know that you are a powerful person, a Beacon of Light. Focus this power into a Beacon of Light filled with Love and Healing energy, and send it to your Sister. Do this, chant the Mahamantra, invoke my name, and with patience and diligence, change will occur.

"Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

Dear Marge,

I could not stop crying when I received this reply. I feel I am no longer alone and painless. I feel whole. I love Babaji and all that has come from him. I love everybody, even my enemies!!! I just love everything when I know that Babaji is around to help us. I am no longer alone.

I would like to share this message/reply with everyone else. I thank Babaji, you and the previous person who posted his reply. Like so, I would like to remain anonymous.

May 28, 2000 from DS

Hello Babaji

As the opportunity to communicate with you has manifested, I would like to take advantage from the situation offered to us and ask you a few vital questions about me and the higher path.

Are you really -the- highest God, the One who no-one goes over? If I call for you, Shri Babaji, am I calling out for God? Can I relate to you as the Christian God? -What is my mission for this life? Can I start work already? Where am I to go? How about staying in tune even if I do not have the chance to share strong energies with my friends. Any tips about working alone? It feels like my energies slowly gets distorted and waning when I am with my family. Am I giving too much? Is it possible to do that??

And lastly, what is the most effective way to work with my tuning, and strengthening my energies? Is the sexual energy of great importance? Should I take things easier and relax? How? Thank you. Please convince me that I truly have found my Master who I shall follow for eternity and on. Thank you.

Hugs,
H.P.A.L.

PS. If there is something You think I should know, don't hesitate to write it. DS.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"I am not here to convince you of anything. I am only here to help humans destroy the lower Self of ego caused misery so that sentient beings may walk on the High Path and live in Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service.

"Your mission is to live the Teachings and serve as a Beacon of Light to the many living in the despair of darkness. Chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name. I am always with you.

"Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

Marge, please put this on the list for all of us. I have taken away a few problemkindathings which miraculously disappeared instantly after mailing this message to Shri Babaji. The bliss and blessing energy in my reply is awesome, added to the fact that it is (simply) short and full of truth and love on all levels possible for me at this moment.

I have had a heavenly time since I got the news that Babaji's around, especially the bliss the last two days has not ever been this strong. He truly is great in his infinite deepness of love and understanding, and I've also witnessed the unbelievable power the Mahamantra and invoking Shri Babaji's name manifests.

I now know where to put my focus. Actually it rather feels like a whole new way to think and be.

Cheers and blessings to you Marge for making this possible. I have never witnessed anything more Epic than mailing around with Babaji.

May 29, 2000 from Nameless

Dear Marge,

Please forward this to Babaji for me. Thank you so much for all you do!!

Love and Harmony,
Nameless

Dearest and Most Divine Babaji,

I've thought for a good while now about what I should write to You. I still don't know, so I'll begin here. I am most grateful that You have chosen to walk with us once again. I was very young and not awake yet during Your last visit. I've prayed that you would return during this lifetime of mine, and you have. Thank You. I have felt Your presence so strongly lately, I knew something very important was happening but wasn't sure what.

As You know, I have only in the last few months found my spirituality and my way to You. In these last few months, I've known more joy than I did in the previous 40 years of this life. I realise now that I have lived, pretty much continuously, for several 1000 years. I know that is but the blinking of an eye to You, but becoming aware of my past lives has answered many, many points of confusion. I became so close to You so quickly, I feel that our paths have crossed on this planet before. That is something I would love to have clarification from you on. Have we spoken in the flesh before? Did you know me in ancient Egypt or even before then?

I can see and feel so much of the ancient temples, I'm positive I was there. I can smell the damp, stone walls and even feel the heavy hemp robe on my back. I know you are by my side now, even as I write this letter, you are reading as I write. That makes me very happy! Please stay by my side forever and I will do everything in my power to stay by yours. As you know, I've been experiencing some very powerful, spiritual "situations" lately. Most of which I don't understand.

You know of the experience I had with lightening last month. Did I imagine that? Was it just coincidence? And my telekinetic experience. Should I try to develop that ability or is it of the darkness and something I should avoid?

Babaji, most beloved One, I could write volumes to You each day. I want nothing more than to be closer to You and to serve You. I am here for you. As I said before, I have been feeling your presence very strongly lately. When I meditate, I keep a picture of you in front of me so that when I come out of my meditation, Your divine and beautiful face is the first thing I see. The last few times, I've seen Your face grow older. Have You taken the form of an older man this time? I'm seeing You at about age 50.

There is SO much I want to ask you about but I will close this letter for now. I pray that you will respond to this humble servant. Your will is my command.

Forever Yours,
Nameless

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Yes. Yes. Not only here but in countless other dimensions have our paths crossed. Understand now that you have regained this awareness you have a heavy burden placed upon your heart.

"You are to be a Beacon of LIGHT, a messenger of the teachings of Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service. This is your assignment in this great time of coming CHANGE. I am always with you.

Beloved Babaji!

Please accept my pranams at thy feet. Its so wonderful that i could write to you. I love you so much. Dear Babaji please bless me & my family to live a life of Truth, Simplicity & love. I try to meditate every day but i don't know whether i am progressing at all.

Recently i had a severe back pain during the May alignment. Is it something to do with my chakras? I do get angry & irritated with my children sometimes when they are naughty. What do i do for this? Will my children settle down?

I love to sing bhajans at my home with others who would like to join me. Please bless us to do so.

I love my husband. He has lot of cholesterol. Please look after him.

My father has He is 65 yrs. I pray for his transformation. How else can i help him.

With all my meditation i feel very lonely. How do i feel God with me as i go about doing my daily chores. I like to talk to people & i do feel compassionate towards them but i am unable to reach out & talk to them. Why is this inhibition?

Bless us to have a satsang so that we could meet a lot of holy people. Thank you Babaji & i love you.

Om Namah Sivaya !
Your Loving child

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"How can you feel lonely. I am with you always. In your time of need you need only chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name. I am there instantly.

"Your children will settle down. Be patient. Don't you remember when you were a child? You are a good Mother. This is your service.

"Inspire your husband to change his diet otherwise there will be health problems ahead.

"You cannot change your father. You can only Love him, and if that love is strong enough, he will transform from that and not from my intervention.

Babaji was asked how to proceed at the next American Haidakan Samaj Meeting

Babaji was asked how we should proceed at the next American Haidakan Samaj Meeting, to bring people together and resolve the conflicts. These instructions He gave sound like a blueprint for ANY and ALL meetings throughout the world in His ashrams, centers, and even small groups of devotees getting together. It gets us back on target of what it is all about to "be a Babaji devotee." It seems we have been off the track for way too long!

Please let me know if and when any of you try this. Our Samaj meeting takes place Labor Day Weekend, in September, but I think we will also do this during the Guru Purnima Celebration July 15-17. I know that even just READING it shifted my consciousness considerably. Tell me your reactions.

Om Namah Shivay
Love and Blessings,
Marge

Response by Babaji:

"Blessings:

"What is important here is that in all of this where is my message of Truth, Simplicity, and Love? Where is my message of unconditional Service? And where is it that I can see the destruction of the Lower Self taking place and the walk onto the High Path? My last body was worn out by all of this ego nonsense. You see! This will only lead to misery and despair. Are these my devotees who are in conflict? Are these my devotees who create animosity? Are these my devotees living in Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service? Are these my devotees walking on the High Path? Understand?

"Now here is how you are to proceed. At the next annual meeting you will discuss the TEACHINGS. You will each give a talk on Truth, Simplicity, and Love. You will each share how you are in SERVICE. Then you will chant the Mahamantra and invoke the name of BABAJI. Then, in silence, you will observe each other, unconditionally, without judgment, without thought, until the space between the observer and the observed are one. In this moment, if your heart is ready, I shall appear in your minds' eye, and I will speak to your hearts. Then you will discuss how each of you will help to bring the focus back to the TEACHINGS. After these steps are accomplished you may proceed to begin the process of resolving your conflicts.

Dear Babaji:

All blessings to you. I would like to thank you for all the blessings you have provided me with. I also thank you for allowing me to serve for you. Could you initiate me into kriya yoga? I am interested in starting a center for you here in Canada. If this is ok with you, I will surely need your help and guidance since I have never done this before. I would like to share your teaching's here, for others following truth, simplicity, love and service. I love, honour and praise you. I know I have much growth ahead and thank you for this.

Babaji Responds:

"You do not need the burden of starting a center at this time. Offer your talents and SERVICE to the ashram. Because you are a Beacon of Light you are initiated.

June 1, 2000 - from Nameless

Dear Babaji,

Thank you for allowing us to ask you questions this way! It is very much appreciated.

To get right to the heart of the matter, I believe that things in this world are only temporary and that material desires can lead to despair... This is why I feel in my heart a great longing to know God again, because I think that connection will bring me true happiness. However, I am having difficulty bringing God into proper focus, with His/Her many faces and today's world teaches us to focus on many other things besides God (job, love, money, etc.) so I'm not always as strong as I want to be. I want to make your teachings the center of my life ... I don't have experience with rituals or scriptures, but I can understand Truth, Simplicity, Love & Service.

My desire is to experience God directly, to know the Divine on a personal level. I struggle with questions and doubt sometimes, but I try. What is the best way for me to achieve my goal of surrendering to God and making that connection, while taking care of other business such as working a job and paying bills? How can I bring my desire for God into all aspects of my everyday life without losing focus?

Also, I fell in love last year and it ended in terrible sadness and loneliness. Since then I've needed companionship on a "human" level as well as a spiritual level. I've heard that human love is temporary and God's love is eternal, but I do not know God in my heart yet and that makes it difficult. Should my love for God come first before all other love? I hope this is not a silly question! I have heard several opinions on this subject but I trust you to speak the ultimate truth.

I have many other questions but these are the most important at this time. Thank you for being here for us, your presence and teachings are much needed.

Om Namah Shivaya,
nameless

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"The body needs food, shelter, clothing, and companionship. The spirit needs God. There is nothing wrong with working, having a career, and being spiritual. Work is Service. You are a SPIRITUAL being having a HUMAN experience. To make the connection chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name. Patience, companionship comes your way. Love all sentient beings unconditionally. Love God unconditionally. Both are equal. Your Higher Self has experienced God directly. Understand. Attach to it.

"Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

Hi, I read Babaji's answer to my questions today and just sat at my desk, lost in thought. He reminded me of something I've forgotten: we're not of this Earth, we're spirit "in the flesh" and we all have a touch of "amnesia" about our divine origin. Reconnecting with God is how we stop reincarnating. Yogananda has given many speeches about this and I've read it several times, but lately I've just focused on my problems and have forgotten to keep that in mind.

A strange little thing happened after work today. First of all, I stayed late, which is a first for this job. Then I was headed for my bus stop and noticed that I had some time to wait, so I stopped in Borders Books and went right to the Religion section like I usually do. I was scanning the shelves when my eyes landed on a book by Yogananda (and others) that I've never seen before. I pulled it down, opened it to a completely random page, and the first thing my eyes landed on was a paragraph that addressed the EXACT question that I asked Babaji today.

It was a very specific question about being a spiritual person in the age of technology and materialism, and this passage just jumped out at me!! Of course I went right over and paid for the book, wanting to read the entire thing. The book is "A World In Transition: Finding Spiritual Security in Times of Change". It was practically written for me! I do NOT think it was a coincidence that I found this book and opened it to that specific page, right when I needed that information... I hold Yogananda's writings in very high regard so this was a Godsend (literally).

Babaji's words are still sinking in and I've thought about them all day. They will be on my mind a lot in the future as well... Thanks for doing all this e-mailing back and forth for people!! You can share my question and answer with the group if you like, but please remove my name.

June 1, 2000 - Channeled Session By List Members

These are words from a channeling session by members on this [Peacenews Newsletter] list.

Channeled Info:

I am still getting a feeling from most people of division instead of unification. How painful after all the work and messages, that they just don't get it -- that we are one. How many times and in how many messages will they get it, that the mere breathe they take is my breathe and their thoughts are my thoughts. Why the disconnection, it makes no sense, how much clearer can I be about who I am and what I wish for. This is pure madness, after so much communication and work that the masses still can't get the message.

How much simpler can it be, does everyone need to get crazed in order to get it -that we are one connected like a vine that grows with perfection. We are everything and nothing - whatever you wish to believe - but stop thinking we are 2 for you can't exist without me as I couldn't have a soul to communicate with without you. It is time to keep your mind out and leave your heart open. You will have everything you need and are, so go and bless everything and everyone you come in contact with.

The more ecstasy you feel, the more you will accomplish. It still creates a disturbance for me to know that people keep identifying me as a separate entity instead of themselves. It's time to embrace me as them and them as me. We are one, in one cell in one body. Allow for all to understand and know that in their souls, and their lives will be short of miraculous. All change shall be embraced. Make changes and live every second in ecstasy and passion in the pure understanding that the closer you are to me and the more you realize we are one, the more gifts we can put before you. Om Namaya Shivaya.

Isn't the beauty of My creation your individuality and your beauty - each with different DNA and at the same time with the same connection in the outer world; bringing it all to this dimension is what is difficult for most. It is time to fly and seek truth. The age of indifference and blindness must stop. It is time for responsibility and acknowledgement of your beauty and reasoning for participating in this dimension.

Embrace Me and you will embrace Truth. ONS Just know that we are one connected at every cellular level and that I can only serve when the heart is connected and not broken, for when it is broken and not truly trusting we can't serve only what you believe to be true for yourself. Well ONS and good night my child. As always, I remain with you at all times for we are one in truth, love and simplicity. Peace & Light to All in every Dimension.

Marge:

I sent all that off to Babaji and asked if we should post it.

Babaji Replied:

"These are not my words, but the message is in Truth. Share it.

Dearest Babaji,

OM NAMA SHIVAYA

Please forgive me for being greedy with Your time, but I need advice on a situation. You know what is going on with my son (nameless). (I imagine the entire universe does with all the cacophony I've been causing!) I've tried to practice non-attachment (pretty much unsuccessfully).

The woman who is with him beats him up both mentally and I have cause to believe physically. I truly wish her no harm as she is also a human being who must have been hurt, however, this thing she is doing to (nameless) feels so evil I don't know what to do.

I truly do not want to bother you with problems I should be able to solve myself but this has me stymied. I have learned though that the torment I feel over this has taught me how much more our Divine Mother and Father must grieve for the stupid things us humans do to each other and our selves. I wish I was strong and fierce like Durga.

Please help me to be free from ego and learn how to relieve suffering when I encounter it. What is happening to (nameless) is happening to so many other gentle souls. Please teach us all how to behave correctly and be kind.

Please help
(nameless)

PS: I meant it when I asked You to burn me up. Thank You for Shiva being there when I first woke up today. Help me to always remember You and to know what is correct action. I love You so much .

OM NAMAH SHIVAYA

Yours, (nameless)

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"I feel your pain. It is difficult to be unable to help a loved one in misery and despair. You must try to observe the situation unconditionally, without judgment. In doing this, a clear message will come from your heart to your son's heart, through the silence of pure observation.

Dear Marge,

You have my permission to post my letter and reply. I would prefer to be anonymous. There are not the words to express the effect this reply had on me. There is so much more I could say but I think this is enough.

Dear Babaji,

Will the new world order and global elitist program of world dominance, corruption and control come into full fruition eminently? Can our light overcome this battle?

Also I have a question that is bothering a lot of people lately from swirling rumors about Sai Baba. Is he a true divine avatar, or not? It is very important to know the truth surrounding this.

Om namah shivaya - bhole baba ki jai!

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"The few will control the many. Darkness will descend upon this world. Only those who live the Teachings and are independent thinkers will escape the burden of misery and despair that is to come. Know this, Gossip is not in Truth, not in Simplicity, not in Love. He is an Avatar.

"Babaji"

June 6, 2000 – Nameless

Well Marge, I hardly know where to begin. I wrote to Babaji the other day, my first time. I was intrigued by his reply, but it was not very specific and I found I was still "unimpressed" by what was said. It didn't seem to be very uniquely "my" message so I was still somewhat sceptical as to the identity of the entity answering these emails. I guffawed slightly and thought "yeah, right, well anyone could be out there writing lovely prose about being positive and loving to people who wrote to them, all in the name of Babaji." But HOW would I KNOW that it REALLY was BABAJI writing the answers?

I waited a couple of days, and kept remembering what you and Babaji have said over and over and over: "Repeat the Mahamantra and invoke (call on) my name and I will be with you." I found that SO hard to believe as literal. I am an experienced "new ager person," occult researcher, registered American Astrologer, Teacher of Meditation and of the Tarot. Ran the Branch of a very famous American Astrology organization for years, graduate of Silva Mind Control and experienced medium for 30 years. In other words, I am no stranger to the idea of contact from entities that may not be "incarnate" at this time.

My father and I studied Autobiography of a Yogi by Paramahansa Yogananda when I was just 6 years old and Dad taught Metaphysics at a very large university.

I have gone through a lot of hardship financially and emotionally and healthwise for the past 20 years. I thought it was relentless until I experienced the last 3 months. For 90 days I have had one disaster after another NONSTOP relentlessly. Some days there were 2 or 3 things. The culmination was the breakup of my 30 year "perfect" marriage. I have been devastated.

I asked in a meditation one day that "I meet anyone that I have past karma with whoever is incarnate now while I am too, and that I make peace with and finish as much karma as I can NOW. I met 18 people who all recognized me as I recognized them too. It was so eerie. A long procession of folks popped up... And, they all came through one particular site that I kept visiting, a spiritual chat room, here on the Internet.

On top of all the challenges in this, my former husband, newly separated from me had gone on his very first "date" last night. He had messed up our lives badly, and had no illusions about the need for me to leave him. He understood and even said he was grateful that I had taken so long to "wake up" to the need to dissolve the marriage he had ruined. He didn't blame me, and loved me dearly. We agreed to remain friends for life. He was terribly hurt at his loss though. So he went on his date. I had a strangely poignant but cool feeling about that happening. I was strangely detached.

Well, the upshot was that last night, when I did the Mahamantra as told to, and invoked the name of Babaji, I had scarcely finished the 3rd syllable of the name before I was aware of his voice, soft and strong. It spoke lovingly to me. Told me many things about my situation and how to deal with it. He told me to stop feeling so hurt that everything was over and changing so rapidly. He said:

"Don't you realize how completely your life is being washed and cleaned? All the problems you have had are wiped away in one fell swoop. You are free, and you may begin a whole new positive phase of your life. You will never again go through the things that have gone before. Stop obsessing about the past ... that is why it is the past. Let it be 'past' - you go on - and you always will. Don't you realize that this illusion is being changed for your spiritual health? Relax and let the will of heaven manifest."

Then I quickly acknowledged that I knew who it was. I had no doubt. I apologized for my questioning that it was possible that the person writing the emails REALLY was Babaji. I KNEW it was. He made statements about how I could be perceiving him as I did, as a "voice" and presence all around me but emanating from deep within. He said that he WAS within me. That he wasn't "all in my head" but was really THERE inside me directly. I wondered how. He began to explain something that blew my mind so completely in its unbelievable simplicity and uncanny ring of truth. I became aware that the explanation was long and scientific and so beautiful in its simplicity. I wanted to be able to remember it, but didn't want to get up to get paper and pencil to write it down because I was afraid I would end the connection by getting up from the bed and moving around. Then the voice led me to go ahead and get the paper. It said, write this ... send it to Marge, she may want to share it. So -- here we go:

Me: Baba, how is it that I know you are you (and not me) but I perceive you as inside me?

BABA: I AM inside you. You are aware of me BECAUSE I am inside you. You do not realize the actual nature of reality. You don't realize that from this side I simply raise the timbre/intensity of my vibration to make it strong enough for "EVEN" you humans to pick up my presence... I don't do anything extraordinary in the sense you understand. You all think communication with Me is a "Phenomena" and unusual in some way. It is not. It is quite easy and usual but you have not gotten far enough in your knowledge of the true nature of reality to realize yet what happens with access from one dimension to another. It is much simpler than you know, as most of reality is simpler than you all realize yet. I raise or lower my intensity to a point where I "glow" brightly enough to be "seen" by your dimension as needed.

Me: Oh MY - but Baba, how then do you come here and "appear" fully grown when you come back and forth in different incarnations? How can you just manifest a body, it is FLESH Baba! HOW?

BABA: Easy anxious one. The same way that I raise my vibration to be "heard," I raise it slightly more to be "seen" as flesh. Even your scientists now realize that flesh is not solid, indeed nothing is ... all is vibration ... all is in constant motion ... they realize that the distances between atoms on a minute level are the same as the ones in the heavens between the planets. So dear one, don't you see, flesh is also "see through" and not solid at all! The "bodies " that you each see are not solid at all. You just see them that way."

At this point, Baba said to get up and write what he would say next, assured me I'd remember the first bit, and said he'd wait. I got the paper, and soon realized that he was indeed still there even though I was now up, and sitting with pen poised.

BABA: The important things to remember about reality and how it functions are to remember PURITY and INTENSITY. These are the ingredients for manifestation. There is a point in the equation of the two where a balance is struck. Any certain amount of PURITY (of intention) has a corresponding amount of INTENSITY (strength of intention) at which it becomes so properly balanced that it immediately manifests. Our challenge as humans is to learn those balances and how to use them in helpful and caring ways and not to simply create "things" for our selfish use.

Once again, I was admonished to understand that PURITY of intent was SUCH a large part of the equation. This is a sliding scale he said ... these are not "balances" where the ingredients on each side of the equal sign are the same, they are balanced because of the sliding point of balance in each instance of need. The quote ran like this literally:

"The balance point of (between) purity and intensity is the key. This point is not balanced in terms of 'equal' but balanced in terms of 'CALIBRATION'! Different things 'balance' at different points (of an x,y axis for instance). Reality as you know it, visual reality is a matter of YOU (people) 'seeing' because of a balance between your eye and the vibratory rate of a certain thing's own projecting rate (vibratory rate) or electronic pulsing [action]. I can be seen or not as 'real' depending on how strongly I 'push' or project my vibrations in their intensity and how purely I can emote what I desire. And voila! Strongly enough, and EVEN humans can perceive me as one of them. (For your own bodies are no more dense or solid than mine!)

"I can just vary my PITCH at will and you can't yet. (!) remember: KEEP IT SIMPLE KEEP IT TRUE BE ONLY YOU,

"Goodbye. Babaji."

This morning, when my ex came to have me drive him to work so I can get the car, I was determined not to ask about his "date" last night. If he wanted to bring it up, he would, I reasoned. Soon, he did say tentatively that he had gone. He was waiting for a sign from me that I could stand to discuss it. We had agreed to be "bestest friends for life" ... to continue to share openly as we had done in the marriage for so long. I indicated an interest and he went on. He stated that he couldn't understand what had happened, but that he had a fabulous time, that the most incredible coincidences of fate had come up all that evening to show him it was a very special meeting between them and that it was "fated" too ... as he put it "I felt the same strange awareness of rightness that I felt 30 years ago when you and I met."

I was truly FLOORED. it took only 2 seconds of shock to realize that I didn't really feel hurt or slighted at all. What I felt was RELIEF. He was going to heal nicely. He would have a new life. He would be happy. and the new lady would be getting one awesome wonderful guy. We were ALL going to be unbelievably happy. I was stunned. This was hours after BABAJI had come to me to tell me that my "loose ends and problems" were all being taken care of!

Ex-hubby and I hugged when he got out of the car, and said how glad we each were for the beauty of the positive way of living and loving. We were grateful for spiritual partnerships like those spoken of in Gary Zukav's books Seat of the Soul, and the new one "Soul Stories" which I had carried around all through the breakup. There have been a hundred other little hints and occurrences through this whole ordeal that have reassured me all along that this is all part of a larger plan. I am so happy to know spiritual happiness. Physical happiness is never far behind.

WELL Marge, that is it. What do you make of THAT?

I know this has been long. I had to give it as it happened though. The shared experiences of others in the newsletters have helped me through this so much. I mean it. I can't begin to explain how it has kept my mind on track so many many days when I awaken to physical reality each day and say, oh no, I'm awake again, now I have to think about all this bad stuff that is happening ... how can I get through another day? I boot up, see your emails, read the words and somehow I am energized to go through another day. THANK YOU for the work you do. I can't begin to thank you enough. I admonish others to PLEASE HELP !! This is important work!!

And Marge, I have offered before, and I do so again, anything I can do, I will be glad to. I will happily type whatever you need and I can work at it as long as you need. Please let me know.

THANK YOU AGAIN a million times.

June 7, 2000 - From Anonymous

Dear Marge,

Om Namah Shivaya.

After digesting this beautiful answer from Babaji over the last week, I have decided to share Babaji's response with the list, in the event that the WORDS should strike anyone else's heart and be of help and service.

Babaji's Response:

"Blessings:

"I forgive all of your past transgressions. In turn you shall eliminate any deep seated injuries whether real or imagined from your mind as of this moment.

"You must move away from this one sided relationship, but know this, if you stop worrying about relationships, and you stop viewing the present from the past, and live in Truth, Simplicity, and Love, you will attract a beautiful relationship into your life. If it is time to move, then go to a place that you Love.

"Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

I decided to share this because I know that others have been where I have been (struggling to HEAL from the past). And certainly it is a common human experience to "fall in love" with someone who is not in love with you.

Reading the message was like being immersed in the ocean, feeling the truth of it. I AM SO GRATEFUL. Babaji's words also help so much is because they are so simple and direct, unlike my own verbosity! Another powerful lesson!

June 8, 2000 From Marian

Dear Babaji

As I was working in the store today I felt you very strongly, but then I heard you say, "Marian, I will be in the store today inside of someone you have not seen in a long time, so watch for me."

When I heard this I ran to tell my husband that Babaji was coming today in someone and that I had to watch out for him. As everyone came into the store I kept looking at them, but nothing. My heart was really pounding because I knew you were really coming, but when?

Well Babaji, after a while I was so absorbed in my work that I paid no attention to anyone coming in the door, when all of a sudden I heard "Marian" and I turned and knew it was you.

This was a girlfriend I had not seen in two years. I ran to her and she ran to me and we hugged and hugged. We just couldn't let each other go. I knew it was you and did not know what she was thinking. When we finally parted she said, "Marian I was on the highway and something kept telling me to come and see you, over and over, so I turned the car around and here I am. Tell me what is this all about."

I couldn't tell her right away and went all around the subject until I finally told her about you, Babaji. She then surprised me and said she was reading autobiography of a yogi. Then I told her, and she was so excited and kept hugging me and said "I knew you had something important to tell me. Wow, is this important."

She now also loves you as I do. when she left, she felt wonderful. of course my day was fabulous and everyone kept telling me, you look radiant.

Thank you Babaji for doing this for me. I hear that you always talk to many people but never thought I was important enough for you to do this for me. I love you from deep within my heart and always will.

Just answer my letter and tell me this is true so that i may rejoice over again. I show your messages of love to all I meet and will always speak your name.

Om Namah Shivaya
Marian

Babaji's Response:

"Blessings:

"Yes. This is True.

June 8, 2000 - From Italy

Dear Friends,

Om Namah Shivaya

I find these emails so refreshing and insightful! There is something so precious and sweet here, I asked this young woman if she would let me share with you. She wholeheartedly gave permission. ENJOY! Her native language is Italian, so we get that added "flavor" to this English.

Love,
Marge

To Babaji:

Dear Babaji,

I don't know you very well but I often think about you during the day. I'd like to know if the strange experience that happens to me 2 days ago was created by you and if the voice that called me was your voice. I'd like to know what to do with my life, I can't find my way I have a very uncertain temper and I often feel that I am worth nothing. I'm very confused, please, help me!

Love

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Yes, that was me trying to tell you that you are a very worthy soul with much compassion. Just look at your heart without all the filters of the past.

"Now walk on the High Path, be a Beacon of Light, and a messenger of the Teachings.

June 8, 2000 - About Thoughts From Anonymous

Dear Babaji

What can I do to calm my fears and my bad thoughts? It looks like my mind is like a market in which there is a lot of people who gossip and all these things make me anxious. I turn the same things over and over during the day, I'm very tired of it I want to be another kind of person quieter and sweeter than what I am now and I'd like not to be afraid of other judgement and so fragmented inside.

Love

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Accept who you are. Then in time of need, chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name.

June 8, 2000 - From Virginia

Dear Babaji,

How can I recognize if I'm acting on the higher path or I'm acting guided by ego?

Love,
Virginia

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"If your motivation is based on wealth, control, manipulation, greed, etc. this is the Ego. If your motivation is based on Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service, this is your Higher Self.

June 8, 2000 - Anonymous About Her Mother

Dear Babaji

Thank you very much for your answer! It made me happy. I have two thing to ask you for:

Why is my mother so unlucky and why can't she live as many other mothers in the world? You know what I'm saying. It is too difficult for me to explain it in English. And is my brother well? I haven't seen him for a long time.

Thank you for your love and excuse me if I'm a little afraid to feel your presence. I hope not to bore you with all these questions!

Love

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Rather than worrying about your mother's luck, why don't you LOVE her UNCONDITIONALLY, without judgement. It is your LOVE that has the power to change the events in her life. Your brother would also like to receive some of your LOVE.

"Babaji"

June 8, 2000 – God

Dear Babaji

How are you? For me is not a good period but I try to feel the presence of God during the day and knowing that God is with me makes me better. What can I do to really feel His presence? When I dedicate my songs to you do you hear me and do you like it? What can I do to find my higher self? Have I ever met you in another life or dimension?
Love

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings.

"Yes, I can hear you. You have been singing for many lifetimes. In your time of need, you are simply to chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name. Instantly I will be there for you, always.

"Babaji"

From her boyfriend

Dear Babaji,

It is the first time that I write to you. My girlfriend told me about you and I'd like to ask you for one question: I have a problem with my parents, they are often angry with me because I didn't finish high school and they always say that I'm a bad son that I don't worth, what can I do to make the relationship with my parents better? Will this bad situation last for a long time?"

Love

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Your parents Love you. They know that without an education you will have a difficult time in this world. Consider finishing High School. You have the capacity to do this.

"Babaji"

Marge's Comments:

I found this last one REALLY interesting, as my husband, Angelo, was helping me with some things and I told him about this question. Before Babaji sent the email answer, Angelo gave his idea of what Babaji would say, based on his experience when one of his friends asked this same question of Babaji in 1983. It was identical to Babaji's answer here. Have a great day, filled with blessings!

Love,
Marge

June 9, 2000 - From Nameless About The Car

Dear Marge:

Om Namah Shivaiya

I'd like to tell you what happened shortly after we spoke yesterday.

I sold my car. I had made a decision to sell this car I had for many years. One of the things Babaji is working with me on is attachments. I actually sold it easily and effortlessly to my neighbor across the street. I had asked Babaji to help me with this. Which brings me to the next interesting development.

That morning I had realized that I was estranged from those people across the street. Where had I been less than loving and where had I lost opportunities.

So I was ever so surprised when he rang my doorbell and asked me about the car. I had my opportunity again.

Living on the path of truth simplicity and love and the higher path.
Nameless

PS: I also went to the mall last night something I usually dread but I was able to see everyone there as connected and I found what I was looking for.

June 9, 2000 - From No Longer Hesitant

Dear Marge,

The email sharings from Babaji have been wonderful to read. I also want to thank you for forwarding my note to Babaji. I hadn't stipulated a desire for a response, and was so thankful for the response he did send. His response was very compassionate. I shared it with the Canadian email group. I have no objection to any of my emails being shared if you feel it is of service.

My life has been in profound upheaval. I am glad for opportunities for change, yet so far change is not wearing a particularly friendly face. I'm having to embrace change with faith despite the fact that it appears to have a threatening countenance. I am also having to take a deep breath and directly address consequences of having previously forfeited various shreds of my personal responsibilities on a number of levels, from the mundane to the creative and spiritual. In some ways the atmosphere in my life feels heavy because of these factors, and it would be excessively so, were I not able to call on Babaji's name in the frequent moments of uncertainty.

But part of me is reticent, I am scared that I am asking Babaji to hold my hand too much, that I am clamouring excessively for his attention when I keep calling on him to help me be strong. I feel like I should be strong and stand on my own without his help, that he should be free to help other people who need it more than I do. This is also how I felt last year when I was calling on him daily for specific help to carry through a difficult task.

Are there some thoughts on this subject that could be shared? How can I avoid the trap of leaning on Babaji too much? I am also asking Babaji to help me arrive at an inward understanding in this matter.

Om Namah Shivaya

From Marge:

I sent that straight to Babaji. Here is the REPLY:

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Calling on Babaji can never be a burden. I am no-where but I am every-where instantly. I am here to give. Take all that you need.

"Change is difficult. I feel your burden. The body is not perfect and will always have needs. If you are on the High Path, living in Truth, Simplicity, Love, and Service. If you are becoming an independent thinker. Then fear not. Change is inevitable. Change is the Law of the Universe. But you will get through this.

"I am always with you.

"Babaji"

From this person to Marge:

Dear Marge,

I am not feeling all that articulate right now, but I felt this response from Babaji to the core of my being. I appear to have been surfing an unusual emotional wave since then, & since is unfamiliar territory, I'm not sure what is happening to me altogether; but I think I am experiencing a major release & a cleansing.

Speaking of cleansing, after I received Babaji's response I went downstairs to bathe, and so much dirt came off my body that I had to follow the bath with not one but 2 more tubfuls of water before I was clean. I was surprised at how much dirt came off of me. It feels like the same thing is occurring for me on an emotional level. It is a very intense feeling, but not a disturbing one, as Babaji's response to my email has had a deeply calming effect on me.

I am excited about the next healing session. Is it okay for me to tell individuals who are not part of this mailing list about the healing? Or is this something to be kept to the list for now? I notice you did say to spread the word, but I just wanted to ask you to clarify this, so I don't inadvertently commit a faux pas and bring problem.

I also found it fascinating that other devotees had questions similarly touching on change yesterday. It is giving me a sense of us as an entity together, if you know what I mean. It's like there was a wavelength we were tuning into together, each in our own individual way.

Again, this can be shared if you think it useful. I think anonymity is best. Please excuse my slow responses when I receive email from Babaji, but it is shaking me up so much (in a good way) that I am temporarily speechless afterwards.

Thank you so much for sharing my questions with Babaji. I can't tell you how great it feels to have Him allay my reservations and tell me directly that I can call on Him as much as I need to, that this isn't a problem. I don't know what else to say except that I am grateful I have found Him.

Om Namah Shivaya!

Love,

June 9, 2000 - From The US About Having A Vision

Had another vision today. There was a brightly lit wheel so large it was beyond imagination and I could only see the outside wheel turning with millions of bright lights comprising it. Out in the vastness of the silent universe it turned and the question was "Do you want to travel on the outside as millions of others have chosen, or move closer to the center with God. Is that not a gift from Babaji?"

From the US

June 11, 2000

A good friend who is VERY Christian sent this:

Hi Dear Heart,

I know what it feels like to be rejected by people you are connected with at the very spiritual heart - and this is nothing more than an exercise to cement the bond you have with Babaji, the attachment to no-thing is the only attachment that will free a person. I am so glad that you are willing to withstand the attack because it is a divine service that you do for us all. Time will reveal who all the players are.

Jesus always said "Let those with eyes see and those with ears hear." Also He said that He knows the names of all the sheep in his flock and they know HIS voice. Here is a quote from John 10:23-30: "And Jesus was walking in the Solomon's Porch in the temple area (as is Baba by being in the flesh and making himself known via email). So the Jews surrounded Him and began asking Him, How long are You going to keep us in doubt and suspense? (The very people who had been studying, living by the Law and AWAITING his arrival) If you really are the Christ, the Messiah, tell us so plainly and openly. Jesus answered them, I have told you so, yet you do not believe ME you do not trust me and rely on Me. The very works that I do by the power of My Father and in My Father's name bear witness concerning Me. They are My credentials and evidence in support of Me. But you do not believe and trust and rely on Me because you do not belong to My fold - you are no sheep of mine. The sheep that are My own hear and are listening to My voice; and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never lose it or perish throughout the ages. To all eternity they shall never by any means be destroyed. And no one is able to snatch them out of My hand. My Father, Who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all else; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are One." Verse 31 says "Again the Jews brought up stones to stone Him."

Can it be any clearer? And through my conflicts, and you sharing yours, and Babaji's enlightenment (all from that great source of our Father) I finally understand what the gift of the higher path is - it does not prevent unpleasantness, sadness, disease, divorce, pain or anything else - not at first at least. Nor does it promise wealth, happiness or anything else.. It only means that you know where to place your attachments, divine discernment, attached to NO-THING. And thereby you experience everything that is of value. The gift of being able to love your enemies, your neighbors with God's divinely channeled love.

You are getting a crash course in advanced spiritual progression. Don't worry - you have already passed.

June 11, 2000 - From The US, Seeing Babaji

Dearest Marge,

Just thought I'd let you know that I'm starting to see Babaji everywhere! In the casual glances of passers by, standing behind me at the checkout line, in my Grandsons eyes, in the trees, in the sky, in the wind, in my kitchen for goodness sake! It's sometimes disconcerting but also reassuring. It certainly keeps one alert!

Peace

June 11, 2000 - From Jayanti

Dear Marge,

Thank you for sending my email to Babaji and his reply onto me. As I have received so much from other reader's letters I would like to share mine if you feel it appropriate. I have edited (deleted some parts) my original letter, if you want to edit any further please do so.

When I wrote to Babaji I was in tears and they kept flowing for a couple of hours. I felt I had received a great healing. Then I went to bed and slept very well. The next morning I awoke feeling absolutely wonderful, filled with peace and joy.

As I had told you, my computer is on its way out and it will cost almost the price of a new one to get it repaired. Having very limited knowledge about computers, especially with all the new technology around today, I was not looking forward to going out to finding a new one. Then my brother phoned and offered me a near new computer at a great price, exactly what I needed. A major problem solved with ease.

When I went online and received Babaji's reply (so fast!) I was jumping with joy at first, then many self doubts came up. After some time of all this inner turmoil, I remembered that after a cleansing there is a space to be filled and if it is not filled with high things like the Mahamantra, than all the old stuff will fill it. I immediately started repeating Om Namah Shivaya and before I had said it five times I felt this beautiful peace filling my being.

An interesting thing is that one of the problems that is happening with the computer is it will not print anything. When I received Babaji's email I hit the print button and it printed it immediately. I tried to print several articles after that and it didn't work!

with Love,
Jayanti

Jayanti to Babaji:

Om Namah Shivaya
Dearest Babaji,

I am sitting at the computer trying to find the words to type and my tears just keep flowing. For so many years I have wanted to speak with you and now I have the opportunity the tears will not stop.

Thank you with all my heart for coming into my life and changing it the way you did. And thank you for finding me again this lifetime.

I am writing for guidance about the path I am following now. For the last year I have been doing a Tibetan meditation, called Tonglen. My guide, David, uses a pendulum to calibrate the levels of karmic sludge in the chakras and accordingly I do Tonglen meditation to cleanse the karmic energy in these chakras. Last year I started getting inner messages to meditate more and more. So in January I closed my business, simplified my life, moved to a little town on the coast and have been focusing more and more on my meditations. Now I am feeling to continue on in 'retreat' for another six months.

At first I thought that after a few months I would have a clear direction as to what to do next, working wise. Instead I feel more so now that it is so important to continue on with my inner work.

Please will you give me guidance with this? Am I doing what is the highest for myself with this?

Thank you again my beloved Babaji, thank you for coming in this way that I can share in this wonderful connection with you.

My pranams to you, Shri Haidakhan Bhole Babaji
Yours in love and service

PS: I do have a couple of more questions, may I write again with them?

Babaji Replies:

"Blessings:

"You now have the ability to combine your inner work with business. So if there is some doubt in your heart listen to it and go back to your business. But if your heart moves you to go on retreat, then do so.

"If you are happy, I am happy. The method and rituals used to reach the High Path are numerous. As long as you are living in Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service, use the path that is most comfortable in your heart. I am always with you.

"You may write again. You may chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name for any need.

June 11, 2000 - From Maya About Diet

Dear Babaji,

Here I am again. Three days ago you gave me a diet. To eat only fruit till 22.00 and at 24.00 I can eat a little bit normal food.

So I cook for other people without eating it by my self. That is already a great lesson! Since the diet my consciousness is growing. Consciousness about my body, about my spirit, about life, about the world. This morning I "saw, understand" a lot. I want to share it with You.

First you let me see what the karma is several country's. You started with Europe, with Holland, where I am born (this life). Holland is "open", people of Holland take spiritual stuff easy. They have to spread it out. Italy is very special, people from Italy can transform things what comes out deep from the earth. Afrika, the whole world has to take responsibility for Afrika. Everything what happens there, has something to do with us. All the pain of us and all the sadness of us, is there in Afrika. We have to take care of Afrika. France, has to transform his power, to real power. When people from France accept that they are equal, then there will be a strong light coming out of that country. To shine for this world.

Is that right, Babaji? Then You let me see more of other countries, even what happened when there is a war going on. That all the countries around the place of war has something to do with the war. When the surrounding countries (the people who live there) are in harmony, the war will stop, when there are not in harmony, the war goes on. Is that right, Babaji?

Then I saw, You, Babaji, "sitting" in the Universe. Sending Your vibration in the Universe. It's the vibration of Love and Transformation. Everybody has to choose; Go into Your vibration or don't go. People who doesn't go, they will "die" in some way. People who chose Your vibration they will support You. And by doing this, support the great changes in the world.

The Mantra Om Namaha Shivaya give an enormous power to Your vibration. Is that right, Babaji? Has Your vibration a sound? Is that the sound I heard when I opened my "inner ears?" Is that sound very loud and is it in everything? Like nature, materials things, air, etc? Is it so loud that it is even hard to believe that people don't hear it? Is that right, Babaji?

In love, Maya

June 13, 2000 - From Marge About A Miracle

Tonight's Miracle!!!

I go online to check on things and get a "yahoo messenger" call from someone in western Nebraska. She says: "Help! We are in the direct path of a tornado and I just came online to see if I could find a weather map. Need help!! Let's see if we can direct this thing some other way!!"

I replied: "Writing to Babaji - ONS ONS ONS..."

I wrote to Babaji immediately.

Marge to Babaji:

Dear Babaji,

(name omitted) says she is in the path of a tornado right now; asking for prayers.

Om Namah Shivaya
Love, Marge

Babaji's response comes in after a few minutes:

"Blessings:

"I have intervened on her behalf.

"Babjai"

(note He typed so fast He spelled His name incorrectly!)

1/2 hour after that, I get email from (name omitted):

Wow! Thank you for joining your prayers with mine. I'll bet that the broadcasters and the weather people will be scratching their heads over THIS one! Huge storms suddenly blew up this evening, and next thing I know I am hearing on the local radio station about the tornado. I jump online hoping to find a weather map, and see you online and though I said I would not message you I sent a message asking for prayers. You ONS along with me. I jump off the computer and shut things down because the storm is getting more violent. I try again to call my Siamese cat back in to the house -- he ignores me since the other cats have come to live with us, but this time he comes running in, soaked wet. I towel dry him off and he is my old Bear again. He sits near me on the kitty perch bed (this is a MIRACLE) as I sit in the recliner and do ONS ONS ONS over and over and over.

I start to visualize the tornado being scooped up off the ground and into the upper atmosphere and dissipating. I ask the weather spirits to please just allow us to have a gentle rain of at least an inch if not two inches. Shortly, the winds die down, and its just a gentle rain with a bit of lightening. One by one the astonished radio announcers say that the severe storm warnings and tornado warnings have been cancelled because the (can't remember the word he used, but it means that the stuff showing up on doppler radar just disappeared!).

ONS. Thanks Marge. Thanks Babaji. I know you guys were pulling with me on this one!

Love

Marge:

What are the odds we'd all be online at the same time and that we could pull this off in a matter of minutes like this? BHOLE BABA KI JAI!! ... and the beat goes on.

Blessings to all,
Love,
Marge

June 13, 2000 - "It Cracks My Heart Wide Open!"

Dearest Marge,

I don't think the letter I wrote is important to share with the group but if you would like to share His reply you may.

From Babaji:

"Know this. The body is imperfect. All bodies are broken. Only the Higher Self is Perfect because it is no-thing. Chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name and place my healing energy into your broken body so that it permeates every cell. Now go and take care of the body. Feed it wholesome food and pure water. Exercise it. And whenever you can, stare at the Light of the Full Moon. I am always with you."

"Babaji"

(When He says "I am always with you." I know it is true and it cracks my heart wide open!)

Peace,
OM NAMAH SHIVAYA

June 13, 2000 - Body Pain

Dear Marge,

I woke up in terrible pain today. All bodies, all consciousness all senses, also my gums. I was trying not to bother Baba with this Who has so much weight to bare already. Somewhere inside me I was praying because I have to go to work - praying that somehow I could manage.

Then I went to the mail box and found the books you sent. I was so overwhelmed with love at your kindness that the pain subsided. Then to top it off, I came to the computer to write to thank you and found this message from Baba on the body. Exactly what I needed.

Thank you!

June 13, 2000 - Scepticism & Anger

When I first heard that Babaji was available via email, my mind went a bit crazy, then a healthy dose of scepticism set in, quickly followed by all the anger I had (apparently) suppressed since my last trip to Haidakhan.

I was very confused. It took a few days to integrate the confusion before coming to the conclusion that this WAS Babaji. I wrote an email to Him, still with a certain amount of disbelief. I told Him about my anger during my last pilgrimage to India, I complained that I had not been able to 'feel' His presence ever since, then I asked if he would give me some clarity and guidance.

After sending my question, I was a bit restless, waiting for my reply checking the 'inbox' each time I walked into the house. Of course I did not receive my reply straight away which left me more anxious and with more time to sit with my temper. Then my first reply came as follows:

From Babaji:

"Shri Shri Maha Prabhuj ki Jai!

"Truth, Simplicity, Love, Service and Living on the Higher Path"

This reply made me laugh, I got off my anger straight away, I just kept smiling and thinking what a dill I was for getting so involved in myself, when here was Babaji!

I felt like I was a child throwing a huge tantrum after having dropped an ice-cream or something and Babaji was playing the part of the amused parent, waiting patiently for me to loose interest in my own mess and quickly become distracted by something else more exciting, like other kids laughing or even a dog bark.

Marge then informed me that she felt that there was "... something funny ..." about my reply and that she thought that Babaji was trying to write more than "Shri Shri Mahaprabuji Ki Jai," so my email was forwarded again, and this was my 2nd reply:

From Babaji:

"Blessings:

"I am always with you. Even if you are angry at me. I forgive you. Chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name.

"Babaji"

This reply is "very cool." I know there are probably others out there who, from time to time, have a tiny, little amount of anger with God. I'm sure I'm not alone here, or maybe I've got a lot more Japa to do than I originally thought (like a billion lifetimes worth!). So hear this, Babaji forgives the anger stuff, so that we all can get on with the good stuff.

Bhole Baba Ki Jai Jai Jai

June 13, 2000 - Nameless One From Ireland

Om Namah Shivaya Marge,

You may share the answer I received from Babaji with regard to my question on having an intimate relationship versus following the path of the renunciate. Are there any others on the list who have struggled with the role of relationships and attachment on their spiritual path? I'd like to hear that I'm not alone in this one!

I've noticed that there's a common thread running through the answers that I have read. That common theme is the fact that Babaji is ALWAYS there for us, especially when things get tough. All we need do is invoke His name and chant the Mahamantra. (Look what this did for the Tornado!) Knowing I have the love of Babaji with me - gives me the strength to face the obstacles on my path, and the courage to break through them and move on.

What Babaji has affirmed for me, is that I am the only person who can work out what I need to do, but by the help of chanting the Mahamantra, Babaji can inspire me to take the right path. Through tuning into his loving frequency we can feel what is REAL and follow that path. Personally, I feel I may no longer need to send questions to Babaji, as in my mind, He's not just a person sitting at the other end of a computer, waiting for my question to reply to, He's with me ALWAYS. If I have a question I need only invoke His name and chant the Mahamantra. Then leave the question/problem in His hands. His grace and love will solve all problems for the Higher Good. We need to place our TRUST in that, and our TRUST in ourselves, that all the answers we ever need are in our own hearts, with Babaji.

I feel inspired and enlightened, and I have you Marge, and Babaji, and the support of other devotees to thank. I'm not alone, and I don't feel lost anymore. My path is clear, I know I will see the signposts when the time is right for me. I send my love to you all now, and during the healing meditation. Let's feel the LOVE we can generate together and inspire others by the LIGHT of this love.

Nameless one from Ireland

Babaji Responds (question not shown):

"Blessings:

"You are a spiritual being having a human experience and that includes having a relationship. The body is not perfect therefore thoughts of confusion will always emerge. During those times chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name. Instantly these thoughts will disappear.

June 13, 2000 - About Hearing Babaji

Oh, Marge, I don't know what is happening. I went to meditate this morning and Babaji starting telling me this.

"One of the purposes of the Internet is to act as a channel right now between me and my devotees but it is not the ultimate channel. My purpose is to bring that channel into your hearts.

"I don't want you to cling to answers you receive on a piece of paper, I want you to cling to the answers I engrave into your hearts. When you can clearly hear my Voice, then I will be able to answer all questions in all languages at any time wherever you are and whenever you ask. You will arrive at the point where my advice to you will be instantaneous. That is the purpose here.

"My desire is to speak to you all Clearly inside so that you know that you have a Direct channel to me. I do not want anyone of my devotees to be jealous or envious of each other. That is not the way of the Higher Path. To love, share and help each other on this path, that is the true way.

"When you hear me inside I will be whatever you want me to be for you to attain your higher growth. You will hear our conversations inside. One thing is very important to have this happen. You must eliminate all egoic thoughts when you come to me. If you come to me with it, I will deal with it swiftly. I will not tolerate it but I will transform it, for it (Ego) has no place on the Higher Path."

Marge, this is kind of scary. Please forward this to Babaji and make sure it's not MY EGO receiving these messages. All this started happening actually after He tore through one of the veils of MY own EGO. But I know Ego is a subtle thing, and I sure don't want to be on the wrong side of the track. And Babaji, I ask profound forgiveness if I have heard wrongly or if there is anything operating here that should not be. After all it's not even 6:30 am and I'm still half asleep but I thought I heard you say to go and type this before I encounter any distractions and forget some things later. As I say, if I have heard wrongly, I pray that you will correct and forgive me.

In deepest love and devotion,
Devotee

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"You hear me well. Please post this for all to see.

June 13, 2000 - From A Long Time Devotee

Beloved Babaji,

Your messages touch me deeply and inspire me to a higher vision of my Self, which I feel will translate into a higher path in this life. Positive change and synchronicity are already evident in my daily experience. I am very grateful and thank you from my deepest heart.

At the same time that you are offering the teachings through email, a friend has given me tapes of the book Conversations with God to listen to. My experience of these tapes is a high and powerful one, for which I also thank you. There are many similar teachings and though apparently "radical" in some ways, the information in the tapes resonates with me and with how I perceive your teachings.

With regard to creating our lives as we wish them to be, it is said in the tapes that when we supplicate God and come from a place of "wanting" that it doesn't create change in the same way that it does if one, while invoking God (Babaji) has faith that God gives us everything we ask for (from our primary thoughts more than our conscious ones) and thanks God and expresses gratitude in advance, knowing that we shall have what we choose. When I shifted the wanting to change my financial situation and experience of struggle this morning to visualizing people coming to me and being helped by the nutritional products I offer and visualizing the right buyer for the pony, for them and for us, coming quickly, while thanking you and being grateful to you in advance, knowing that it is already done, it felt very expanded and clear.

I also noticed yesterday that when I let go of what appeared to be a source of income that hasn't felt good to me for some time but which I was holding onto in fear, it opened a space for income from a similar but different source.

At the same time, I prayed for assistance for myself to let go of any judgment of the people or the situation and for the people involved and asked for the highest good for all concerned. Would you please comment on the tapes and my experiences and expand on this?

Long-time devotee

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"What you write is so beautiful. Would you please share this with all.

June 15, 2000 - From M

My beloved Father,

I know you are always with me and you have my deepest gratitude for that. I would NEVER have made it this far if that was not the case. My heart knows you are my Father and my Mother but I am feeling a real need to talk to my Father today. I have been a very naughty child. Not just in past lives. This week. Today. Every day I pick up again resolving to do better on the Higher Path you have laid before me than what I did the day before but there seems to be so much to overcome. Why do I feel so old when it comes to life's challenges? Still, I persevere. Knowing that you are here and facing your own challenges in your present body helps me to not feel so bad about the frustrations I feel about being in a body. But more than that, I still feel very much like a rough draft of who I am called to be.

I know that you don't get angry at us but I have felt a certain coolness between us lately - something perhaps that you have left unsaid so far. I welcome your admonishment if that is what it is. I know I've certainly earned it. I know that what you offer is done with the greatest Love. I realize it will most likely bring a lot of pain with it but I welcome it. I cherish the pain of healing - it is better than languishing on the side of suffering. Please let me know your thoughts. I welcome the Change and the Fire you bring into my life. I embrace them both. Bhole Baba ki Jai!

Your daughter,
M.

June 16, 2000 - What Is The Higher Self

Dear Marge

I'd like to share Babaji's definition about the Higher Self. First, I asked several very complex questions.

Babaji's Response:

"Blessings:

"You ask many complex questions. I want you to focus on SIMPLICITY. Begin by re-reading your letter and from this SIMPLIFY to one question.

"Babaji"

I simplified down to my question "WHERE AND WHAT IN ALL THIS IS THE HIGHER SELF? (how to reach, invoke it)"

Babaji Responded

"Blessings:

"The Higher Self is in that space between thought. It is the silent unconditional Observer. You shall reach it.

June 16, 2000 - Is My Ego Deceiving Me?

My Dearest Bhole Baba, I love You,

My heart is filled with love and gratitude for everything in creation that brings me closer to truly knowing You. It is also heavy with pains, the cure for which only you know. I trust in You totally Baba. I know Your support is there, always. I can feel You in every cell of my body when You dance in love, with The Mother. I receive Your inspirations and guidance.

But something is not adding up. My ego must be deceiving me. Please help me Baba to see the right path to walk in my life now. You know the difficult journey I have been walking. I still feel that the truth is, I can no longer maintain being in primary relationship with my partner. We have both embraced this reality without loss of loving respect and support for each other. Despite all the struggles and joys of separating my self out from this relationship, I still find myself feeling deep in my heart that I need to somehow keep my family together and complete the work I have begun, with my vision. Is this just my ego trying desperately to cling to something familiar in the face of complete change. Do I need to let go of this as well? I am in a sticky place with my family torn between two places.

I am very distressed about the effects of this on my children especially. What should I do at this point Baba, to meet the needs of all concerned in this ridiculous drama. I don't want to generate unnecessary pain, confusion and separation in the name of Truth > Simplicity and Love.

All my love and devotion always,
Yours only.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Let go of the vision. Let your son be where he loves to play and learn.....Go back into the world. This is where your SERVICE shall be. Family is first then God. Understand? I am always with you.

"Babaji"

Follow Up Question to Babaji:

I then responded by asking how to further clarify my situation in the light of this response:

My Dearest Bhole Baba,

Thank you for Your e-mail response to my questions and doubts. Your words confirm the same words that I wrote in my journal that came from Your quiet voice within me. Truly knowing that this inner voice is aligned with You and not my lower selves is a constant vigil for me. The need for me to let go of attachment to my visions I can well understand. Going back into the world, as alien as it is to me, I know is my path now. Putting family first, I have long resisted, and now see the Divine importance of these words. There is no doubt that this is my sons place right now, this is why I am here with him Other reasons to be here need to be created if I am to stay.

My decision to leave my partner I still doubt at times, but from one vantage point can see why it has to be. It is my younger son, your beautiful boy, who I am in so much pain with being apart from. Should I be with him or is it his path now to be with his father? Letting go of a vision is easy in the face of the pain a Mother feels when separated from her young child. Please help me to see what is best Baba, so that I can take positive actions to resolve the situational needs of my family now.

Thank you for your loving patience with all of us Baba and Your eternal presence in our hearts. I love you.

Yours only

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Family is first. Difficult as it may be, bring your family together. One will be out of place but in the long run the family should be one. Your heart will make the better decision than Babaji.

June 20, 2000 - I Have Doubts

BELOVED BABAJI.DUNDA PRANAM1008 X INFINITY

You assured me that my questions are never a burden so I assume I can share with you as son would with a father or as Hanuman would with Ram, as a friend and devotee. I am very embarrassed to say that after speaking with some friends my doubts were stirred in regards to you, ie: it is hard sometimes to believe that you are who you say you are because anyone could hide behind the Internet. After much reflection and reading your responses to others I have come to the conclusion that it really doesn't matter, as your responses touch my heart and in silence within my self I feel this tremendous energy. Still why did my doubts arise? Am I a worthy devotee? Should I keep my devotion to you private, not really speak to my friends about your Internet availability. I feel so bad about my doubts.

You have never given me a reason to doubt you, my heart feels wounded that for a moment I was confused. I don't care what others think. To have you to write to is very precious and please don't leave or stop being here in this way. Please forgive me for allowing doubts to touch my heart. Also lol, tomorrow I go to the dentist. Please be with me thru the mantra, I hate pain.

Much love

p.s. It seems to me you are a classic guru - stern ,loving ,lighthearted,, like a father and friend. I feel I can tell you everything. THANK YOU BABAJI

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"I am not here to convince you of anything. You are not here to convince others of anything. I left the last body with a thousand arrows in my heart. In this body that cannot happen. My purpose here is not for the Ego to attach to the body. It is for the Heart to attach to the Teachings.

Follow Up Question About Request For Healing

(This is a follow-up question and answer to the man who is 73 and asked Babaji to heal his eyesight and hearing.)

Marge I have a further question to my first to Babaji.

Questions to Babaji:

Thank you for responding so quickly to my plea and for letting me know you will always be with me too. I truly DO appreciate this AND the opportunity to speak with you too. I do have three further questions though:

1. You once said (to Leonard Orr I believe) that you could heal all of us in an instant, but what would we learn from this? I can accept that you cannot fully heal this body, (or do not choose to at this time) -- for whatever reason. But you also say the body is impermanent and must be left at some time; yet in his latest book "Breaking the Death Habit" Leonard Orr tells of eight masters he met, who have lived for at least 300 years (some of them taught by you).

According to Leonard, one of them (Goraknath) says that anyone who will do alternate nostril breathing (as he instructs) together with chanting Om Namaha Shivai daily, can generate enough life force energy and cleanse the nadis sufficiently to create body immortality for as long as desired. Is this true?

2. Leonard Orr also gives very specific instructions on how to heal the body and rejuvenate it. Are they valid? I do wish to serve, preferably as a practical example by demonstrating that it IS POSSIBLE to heal, rejuvenate and YOU THEN the body to any desired age appearance (regardless of the physical years on earth).

3. I believe that this is the Service I came to do (and receive chills of confirmation from High Self now as I say it). So beloved Babaji, is this just ego or is it my path?

In everlasting gratitude,
Om Namaha Shivaya

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"The body will wear down. The body will perish. Len is a great teacher. Yes, what he teaches can heal and youth the body. Yes, there are a handful of masters bodies that have lived 300 years, but these bodies too shall perish. What will not wear down, what will not perish, is the YOU that was before your body and the YOU that shall be after your body. Understand?"

"I have had many bodies of many forms in many dimensions. Know this. ALL have perished. My message is this ... Pinda Kacha, Sabda Sacha. (The body is perishable, the word is eternal). Now you can strengthen your body by following his teaching and this will help you to focus on attaching to the real you, the eternal you."

"Babaji"

Further Note Marge:

I am so grateful to Babaji for his edification. You cannot know how much this has "bucked me up" to get on with what I came to do. Blessings to you too for your service and love. Feel free to post this if you wish.

Om Namaha Shivaya

June 24, 2000 - From Zdenko In Croatia

Dear Babaji,

My deepest respect to you. I have just read your answer to this 73-year old guy. I am surprised you said you can't heal him. Couldn't you create new eyes and ears for him just as you created your body for yourself? Please don't think my question as if showing ingratitude - I'm aware that there are more important things in life than the body because you have recently helped me remove part of my egoistic attitude and I have witnessed how this reflected on my whole life. But I have actually believed you were GOD, and to GOD, everything is possible. In a previous answer to me you spoke of GOD as someone else. If you are not GOD, then who or what is GOD? Please forgive me if you think that this is only a request for intellectual satisfaction, but we humans are curious about these things.

Om Namah Shivaya,
Zdenko (He requested we use His name) from Croatia

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"The body is imperfect. It shall wear down. It shall perish. Why would you want me to put off the inevitable. This would only cause great despair and misery. You give me a name. Know this, I am no-one. I am no-thing. Such cannot be divided by your Ego.

June 29, 2000 - Pronouncing The Maha Mantra

Dear Babaji,

I have always had a question about the mantra: Om Namaha Shivaya. When it first got transmitted to me from Haidakhan that is how it was given. However, when devotees returned from Haidakhan and on tape recordings, it was pronounced and chanted, "Om Namah Shivaya." And in most written material, it is usually presented that way. Also, in Your emails that Marge has shared that's the way You give it. This is a puzzlement because, when the "ha" is dropped and is chanted that way, the energy is not the same. To me, it is considerably less and not the "Mahamantra." My real question is: Am I feeling this right, and if I am, what happened to the "ha" and why?

In TSL

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Focusing on a slight variation of pronouncing the Mahamantra can only lead to misery. Chant from your heart not your head.

June 30, 2000 - Questions From Young Len Raja (aka Leonard Orr)

Questions from Young Len Raja (aka Leonard Orr):

"Marge, You have my permission to post them. TSL Young Len Raja"

The body is perishable, the word is eternal. Does this mean that the body which is created by the Word is eternal? You once said that it is possible to create a human body directly out of Energy [Spirit] with thought by one million yogas, which I assume means manifesting one million thoughts - each thought in manifestation being a yoga.

What about transfiguration? Is the transfigured body immortal? In other words, does Jesus still have a body somewhere in heaven or the universe? Or is the Bible a fairytale? As well as Vishnu's body, Krishna, Melchizedek, and all the other Scriptures? In other words, do Jesus, Vishnu, Shiva, You, and all of us disappear at the dissolution, in which case, individuality is an illusion anyway and there is nothing to achieve and no one to serve and your word and teachings are also an illusion?

If the word is eternal and the word creates form then if the form is not eternal then the word has no power and is not eternal. Can you separate the word from its manifestation? How long does it take for us to manifest our own Word? How long does it take for us to master our own Words? To even know them?

If individuality is an illusion, then we don't really exist and you are just playing with yourself?

These are my questions for today. for you - Babaji.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"The You that was before the body, and which shall be after the body is the Eternal noumenon, the unconditional Observer. The Eternal Spirit can create a body. The Eternal Spirit can master a body. I have created many bodies. The Transfigured have immortal bodies. But, few will keep a body. Few will master a body. Few will create another body.

"I taught you the techniques of mastering the body through Fire, through Water, through Breath, through Affirmation, through the Mahamantra. Form must change. Change is the Law of the Universe. But I am no thing. I am no one. No thing is changeless, eternal, behind manifestation. No thing is not form. No thing manifests form. Form does not manifest no thing.

"I have come in this body in this period to focus on a darkness that is descending upon this planet. A darkness that creates division. A darkness that allows the corrupt few to control the many. A darkness that dissolves freedoms. A darkness that corrupts the land, sea, and air. A darkness that creates poverty, disease, and war. A darkness where the many have little. A darkness that creates weapons of mass destruction. A darkness that will inevitably lead to misery and despair.

"I have come to focus on the destruction of the Lower Self through Truth, Simplicity, Love and Service. I have come to seek Beacons of Light among the devotees so that they may serve as Lighthouses to those who desire to be guided through the sea of darkness.

"I am not here for recognition. I am not a show, not an entertainment. I am only here to serve. I am not here in this body to create ashrams, build ashrams, or manage ashrams. That is the realm of the devotees. I am here to share the Teachings of Truth, Simplicity, Love, and Service. I showed you Infinite Being. I showed you Infinite Intelligence. I showed you Infinite Manifestation. I also showed you the foundation of All in the concept of Truth, Simplicity, and Love. This is the foundation of the ground of Being. This is the foundation of the ground of Intelligence. This is the foundation of the ground of Manifestation. This is my focus, here, now.

"I seek Beacons of Light. I seek to lift the heavy burdens from the Hearts of many of the devotees. If you are happy, I am happy young Len Raja. I am no one. I AM come from no thing. I am speaking to your Heart young Len Raja. Take as much as you need from me. I am only here to give. I am always with you.

June 30, 2000 - Spiritualizing The Flesh?

Blessings and love to you dear one,

I thank you for bringing your message of love, simplicity and truth. How does one go about 'spiritualizing the flesh?' Raising one's own vibrations to be at one with the God consciousness?

Love and light and service

Babaji Responds:

June 30, 2000 - Are Changes Coming?

Dear Babaji

Thank you for your message. I feel that when I am happy you are happy as well. But what about all the changes that are coming? Are they coming? Are we moving soon? I know that you are every step with me, I feel you very close, but do I ever hear you? Once, last night, I felt as if you were talking to me ... was I right? It does not really matter, because I know, that you are me and I am you.

Love and light
Om Namah Shivaya

Babaji Responds:

"I appear to my devotees through many ways. Through voice, through vision, through feeling, through a body, through this technology, through new technologies to come. Some shall hear me. Some shall see me. Some shall feel me. Some shall e-mail me. Some shall holograph me. But most shall feel me in their HEARTS. Understand? You did hear me. We talked about your move. Yes, you are me and I am you. Always.

July 6, 2000 - sender unknown

Dear Babaji

On the off chance that there are some of us who are still laboring under the misconception that breathing in the good air and out with the bad is beneficial; consider that breathing out ignorance negativity etc., is just going to be reflected back in our faces. If on the other hand, we breathe in the ignorance, misery, dis-ease and unfinished business in this dream and use the inner creator to effect transformation, then we breathe out harmony, beauty and peace and before long we find it coming back at us as all of the disharmony in our world disappears. The objective self at work.

If Babaji carries the Shiva vibration of receptivity and destruction of illusion on the planet, does the creative projection of Brahmic energy exist in an embodied form? And what of the middle or mediator of these energies or Vishnu? Are these two feet of the creator in the world of time-space? Truly a large enough question to focus attention on what is becoming.

July 6, 2000 - From S.

Dear Babaji,

Comments and direction please!

The in-breath containing all of the misery, ignorance and dis-ease of the world encounters Shiva; the destroyer of all the unfinished business who removes everything that is not harmony. This occurs only when Brahma's head-mind has been removed by Shiva so that he can no longer recreate woman, Brahmi and illusion-Maya to distract his attention. All that is left is Love, Simplicity and Truth to be projected on the out-breath. In time-space Shiva must eventually rule so that all the attachments of the mind making up Ego can be removed leaving Brahma ready to act. In the meantime Brahma has become the watcher or audience of the demise of Ego.

When all Ego is gone Vishnu holds everything in infinite stillness until all essence has been extracted as food for the next manifestation by Brahma. Instead of a detail-mind, time-space world we emerge in a detail, free-will time world, a golden city of Love, Simplicity and Truth!

July 6, 2000 - Huge Changes In My Life

Dear Babaji,

With the 3 eclipses this month, and one of them on my birthday, is there anything 'special' I should be doing or be aware of? It seems to me a good time to 'lay low,' as much as I can, and integrate MAJOR HUGE CHANGES in my life. And as always, be aware and be alert, only MORE!

Anything else?

Thank you

July 6, 2000 - Is Looking At Eclipses Inauspicious?

Babaji,

There is a myth in India that looking at eclipses of the sun/moon is inauspicious. Is this correct? We are planning to visit your Vapi ashram on Guru Purnima day (July 16th) and on that day there is also a partial eclipse. Is it Ok to look at the moon/sun on that day? Please also give us your blessings when we visit Vapi.

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"In the time before the advent of eye protection, many were blinded by looking at eclipses of the Sun. So the myth was created to prevent eye damage. But looking at the moon, especially the light of a full moon, can heal dis-ease. You will have a wonderful visit.

Dear Baba,

What I understand is, that thoughts come from the ego, is that correct?

Is fear, is that also a thought?

When things come from the Heart, there is no thought? Is that correct?

When Clarity of Vision comes from the heart, then I "see" the real person, without having judgment? So I see the other person and I feel Love for him or her, no matter what he or she has done and is doing?

Have I understood it Baba?

Love,
M.

July 6, 2000 - What Is Truth?

Dear Babaji,

Thank you for your previous answer, it has meant a lot for me. I was so ashamed of myself! These few days I feel a huge block of ego has fallen off of me and everything goes very smoothly. I have one more question. It seems I don't completely understand what Truth is.

I think I understand what Love is: not any feeling, but doing things at the same time knowing we are all one. Then hurting someone else would be like hurting yourself. So you don't do that, but accept and support others.

I think I understand Simplicity, because I can observe my mind constantly arguing, worrying, inventing obstacles, "buts" and "ifs" - so simplicity is just doing the right thing without complicating and thinking too much. But what is Truth? Of course, I have a feeling of Truth. Of course, I know the difference between telling lies and telling the truth. But even here, one can tell the truth in the very moment when he/she knows it will hurt someone - an example of what is called "handling the truth like a sword". I know people who use to do just that; and I must confess there were times I did that. And as a doctor, I sometimes do not tell a patient that he has an incurable disease - like cancer - if I feel he/she can't handle this.

The other day I woke up a woman after operation (I'm an anaesthesiologist) - she immediately asked how it went - and I avoided the answer because she was operated on in such a way that she won't be able to have children any more and I wanted that the gynecologist who operated tells her that. Or is the Truth something completely different - like what happened to me after your previous answer - admitting I was wrong and selfish and trying to do better from now on? Please, clear my mind on this.

Om Namah Shivaya
My deepest respect

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Truth can be relative and this is why TRUTH is what comes from your heart. You are living in TRUTH. You are a beacon of Light and Compassion. There is no need for confusion.

July 7, 2000 - How Can I Get In Touch With My Inner Self?

Om Namah Shivaya Thank you again, Babaji. How can I get in touch with my inner self? I continue to meditate everyday clearing my head. I find nothing in that emptiness, but I feel it's the way. Is there a way to be in touch with my inner self or soul. When I meditate, I don't do it just for me, I try to include all humanity, all life. Should I continue this way, should I try to visualize more? Being in touch with my higher self I would not have all these questions unanswered (and I wouldn't bother you this much). Can you help me on this one?

July 7, 2000 - Help Me Understand More And Leave My Fear Behind

Om Namah Shivaya

Thank you again Babaji for your help, I appreciate a lot. I begin to see what you mean by being an observer (not only during meditation but always), I can learn a lot more about myself and others. There's something I wanted to ask. When I was a kid, I was hearing kind of voices, not really voices but strange sounds and it felt really weird so I tried to run as far as possible from this because nobody would understand (including me). Then it came back a couple of months ago during a meditation but this time I didn't fight it, instead I accepted it as a gift and it left by itself. And two weeks ago, when I was listening to a speech by you (at Babaji.net) this feeling came again but this time it was different, it went to a new level, I felt in peace, I didn't stay long this way but it felt really good.

Before this, I was taught that it was kind of an evil force or something (because in some books they say that when you begin to purify your body, you also bring attention of evil force on you) but the last time during your conference and especially during the chants of Om Kriya Babaji Namah Aum, I thought that it couldn't be evil force because I was with you and it went to a new level. So could you tell me what those sounds and weird feelings are? (It would help me understand more and leave my fear behind.)

"Blessings:

"These are the sounds of Truth, Simplicity, and Love. These are the feelings of Truth, Simplicity, and Love.

July 11, 2000 - From Sweden

Hello Babaji, and blessings,

The first reason I have to write to you about is to ask for a name in Hindi, as you have given for example Haregovinda his. Mostly out of curiosity, but still.

Secondly, uhm, is to simply mail to you to deepen the contact between us as I think almost all the time that it could be stronger in the everyday. Maybe sending the money to Marge will help the exchange of energy. Please bless my efforts to stand better for my word and keeping all things I promise.

Please bless my struggle with my mind. Was/am I really possessed by something attached from the dark ones in my coming home city, or was/is it my imagination (lower self)? A cunning woman has promised to help me by distance in the excorsism-play, and I don't know how to relate to the fact that I have asked her for help as you should really have all the answers I need. It's just that my face still got distorted even if I chanted the mahamantra. Do you have any suggestions for my situation right now other than chanting and sitting in front of the altar? Don't I really need anything else to be myself again?

I will move back to my former city in a month. I ask of you to show me the right way to live as I move back there as it didn't succeed so good last time. Please bless the moving there, living there, and the friends I will be with there.

My plan is to first do an inventory of my things, keeping it simple and neat in the apartment. It is on a good spot of the city, on a hill, so the energy from the altar I will build to You, the Divine Mother and the Creator Energy will radiate goodly to all directions on many people. I will also try to find some simple job, and going a course in massaging. Please bless this.

I also ask you to help in finding my partner for life as I almost have forgotten how it feels to be near someone. And lastly, it would be interesting if you gave some comment on the fact that people even joked with me (not in a bad way of course) a bit when I was in the ashram in Sweden and told them about you writing and answering e-mails. It's a bit weird when I'm the only one here reading your new messages.

Is it okay to write to you even if I don't have anything grave serious to ask? Thank you Babaji. I today in the woods had a realization that the only "static" in my nowadays quite chaotic life has been you, even if I have been tripping enough to almost forget you and the chanting, You still send the life giving warm energy through the altar when I go to bed. Thank you. Please help me in reducing the distance between us and building on our relationship.

Blessings and Hugs
from Sweden

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"Any time this darkness emerges you need only chant the Mahamantra and invoke my name. Nothing else is required. Understand? The move will be beneficial. The location is wonderful. You will do well this time. You have a healing gift. See if you can focus on that for your career and service. Do not worry about what others say. Do what is in your Heart. I am always with you.

July 12, 2000 - What Is The Great Revolution Really About?

Dear Babaji - Om Namaha Shivai

First I would like to thank you for all the blessings I have received from you in this life and before!! and for always internally challenging me. I feel I have along way to go still!!

I want to ask about the Mahakranti. I may have misunderstood but I'm getting the impression that only those that are seeking spiritual purification will be 'saved'? Doesn't your love extend to everyone? And what about the people who are doing actions in their life that are compassionate and who don't identify as being on a spiritual path?

Sometimes it seems to me that those who don't identify as being spiritual are doing more for people than those that do? What is the great revolution really about? What about all the people who are too poor to have access to the Internet? Some people who identify themselves as seeking the higher self suggest that we shouldn't work with people who are angry and hurt because we get drawn into their darkness, but that doesn't seem fair to me. Don't these people need our help the most?

Thanks and with love Bhole baba Ki Jai
Yours in service

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"My Love extends to everyone. In the not too distant future, even the poor will have access to this technology. We are building an infrastructure that will reach every human on this planet. Now, fair is relative. You and a friend are on a picnic. It rains and you say "not fair". But the farmer caught in a drought praying for rain says "now that's fair" when the rain comes. The ego judges fair or not fair. The Higher Self is the unconditional Observer.

July 21, 2000 - I Am Trying To Love Myself But ...

Dear Babaji,

I am trying so hard to love myself. But feelings of self-hatred and self condemnation keep coming up. I also keep slipping back into thinking that I am unimportant. Is there anything I need to do besides chant the mahamantra? What do I need to do to heal completely from my past? I find it hard to forgive my parents. Is there something I can do to help myself forgive them? Also, how do I find someone to watch my little child so I can work? Should she stay with _____? Thank you infinitely for always being there for me and for the world.

I love you always,

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"I accept you as you are. Now you must also do this. You are a mother. What else can be more important? To heal yourself of the past accept the fact that the past is dead. The past only exists in your mind as incomplete thoughts that emerge and disappear like dancing chemicals. Observe these thoughts and see how they never are the same. Coming and going. I am always with you.

Bhole Baba Ki Jai!

Since the Experience You Blessed me with in my early twenties, I find it very difficult to take the world, and achievement in the world, seriously. After experiencing unitary consciousness with all that is, I feel like someone reading a murder mystery who already found out how it ends: you want to finish the book, but what's the point really? How can I get all excited about what I know is illusion? I use to be able to motivate myself with compassion for other people; ie, I would want to "help" them. But now, I no longer feel that even that is necessary - everyone will "get it" sooner or later, whether I "help" them or not. It is inevitable. And yet, I do not "live" in the space of that Experience continuously, and it seems that I should-- I mean, I think that is the actual goal of this whole leela called The Universe, isn't it? So it seems like there is more for me to do, or learn, or something - but what? How do I use ordinary day to day existence to eliminate ordinary day to day existence? How do I use Maya to eliminate Maya?

Truth, Love, Simplicity,
R

Babaji Responds:

"Blessings:

"You are a spiritual being having a human experience. A walk in the woods. A look at the sunrise. A conversation with a friend. The smell of a flower. Helping another sentient being to breath easier. Being a beacon of Light to help others out of the darkness. You see. You are here to experience Maya not eliminate it. Experience it unconditionally. Observe it unconditionally. Focus on the present not on how the book ends but experience each page fully. Be of Service. I am always with you.

July 28, 2000 - Will I Receive Shaktipat On My Journey?

Dear Babaji,

Thank You so much for allowing us to communicate with you in such a direct way. I have been thinking much about the Real and trying to understand. I understand that all that is born must die and this includes relationships between people as well as physical form. In my life the closest I have come to Real is the Love I have for my children and grandchildren.(I hope some day to have the capacity to feel the same toward All sentient beings). Am I on the right track? Is Love the Real?

I have been reading a book written by Swami Muktananda that has been much help for me in understanding Mantra and Meditation. In this book He speaks of the importance of Shaktipat. Will I receive this on my journey? Should I be concerned about it? My last question is rather mundane and I hesitate to even mention it, but the problem is distracting and I would like to be free of it. I realize that compared to most people in the world I live in luxury- my water is clean, I have enough to eat and a home to live in. I do not care about modern conveniences such as electricity and hot running water but because of the society I live in paying rent and bills is necessary. I try to live as simply as I can but it seems I am always behind and in debt. Is there something I can do to improve this situation? Please forgive me for mentioning such a materialistic problem. My other 2 questions are the important ones.

Thank You for Being.

August 2, 2000 - From J: Crisis

Dear Baba,

I'm in a crisis and need your guidance to help me move through this undivided. (also for any others who might feel the same) At work today my employer asked me to mop the floor using pesticide. This was terrible for me because one of my spiritual goals now is to achieve absolute harmlessness. I do not want to harm the creatures or the earth by using chemicals. Baba, I'm sure You know that I pray even for the misquitos that I slap away. I've been able to bear living in society by simply observing as You teach. Even helping to cook and to wash the dishes of meat eaters, because this is serving, but the truth is I can't bare the suffering of the animals. I cry for them.

We have only to cut our finger to know experience a small part of the pain they suffer. I felt sickened to use that chemical. I suffer for the creatures. I observe and I pray. By Your grace I've been able to manage. But as the heart opens at times what I observe makes me want to jump out of the body. It's one thing to observe and another to be pulled into participating when it's against our principles. In a case like this what should one do? Should I refuse and stand on principle or should I go along with it? Other? I otherwise have a good relationship with the people I work with. I do not want to upset the balance because I'm upset.

Humbly grateful for Your answer. I bless You and pray for You to be well in that body. I pray for all life, all Divine and all that is everywhere.

August 2, 2000 - Please Share With The Group

Dear Marge, please share this with group.

OM NAMA SHIVAYA

Previously I shared a reply Babaji sent me about dealing with my "broken body". There is more to the story that I didn't share - so here it is:

At the end of Shri Mahaprabhujis reply He said to stare at the light of the full moon whenever I could and He was always with me. What made this so personal was that since childhood I have always stared at the light of the full moon whenever I could. There's more. The full moon directly before this message, I had been on my front porch doing japa aloud. For some reason I was starting to choke on the name of God and I had the thought that if I went to where the moon light was shining on the ferns (i live in the woods of Northern CA) that my voice would clear up.

Feeling a little silly, I headed for the moonlight. Immediately as I stood my throat felt better and when I got to the patch of moonlight and stood in its glow - the japa flowed and my throat was fine! There's more. First I thought it was my breath I was seeing but it was not that chilly out. Then I had the thought that Babaji was forming a body of moonlight before my very eyes. Of course I got so excited that my energy blew it all away and I ran in to tell my daughter. It was a beautiful experience that words are completely unable to describe. So when His message said to stare into the light of the full moon "I am always with you" it went right to my heart and confirmed for me once again He is always with us.

When I first heard no more emails I felt empty and sad. Well i simply had to cut the maudlin crap and remember that He who dwells in all our Hearts is truly always with us, and to remember that the path to our Heart is the High Road of Truth Simplicity Love and Service and to find the way home we have to live it. Work hard and praise God with every breath.

August 2, 2000 - From J. - How To Cope With Anger

Dearest Baba,

I've not yet found in Your Teachings the way to cope with fear. Please could You give us a teaching on this. I ask not only for myself but for the good people in this neighborhood, some of whom feel the darkness and are very afraid. I've been trying to share Your Teachings through what they believe in. They are mostly Catholic and Baptist. Last night I woke up and the candle in the little temple if built for You had gone out. The darkness and fear were very thick. I chanted Mahamantra and turned to You. It got a lot better, but there's still residue. It seems I've been fighting this darkness, this fear all of this life. I know how to fight, but it seems You want us to be simple and quiet now - just to work, study and chant the Mahamantra. I obey.

Is this darkness the anti christ? I want to know what we're facing and how to cope with it and to help the others around me to cope also. I've been telling those who are available to pray and repeat the names of God. What can I tell others here in the bible belt that will help them to get through this time? Please guide us, we turn to You. Also how can I open the doors to really sharing Your Teachings? Is it possible to do this here or should I just continue to do the best I can? I've been afraid to move from here without a computer to maintain contact. My sister said she might be able to give me one. I pray for Your Blessing on this.

I Love You, Shri Guru,

J.

Babaji Responds:

"Fear comes from the ego, the Lower Self. The real you fears nothing. Only a few will see your beacon of Light. Many will prefer darkness. Do not be concerned. Do the best that you can. You can move if you desire. I am foremost in your Heart, not the computer.
